Senator Tyrell in Heroic Effort to Rescue

An unidentified youth, 15 years old, was drowned at 10 o'clock this morning in Lake Merritt, and Richard Rheems, 10 years old, of 475 Orchard street, was rescued while clinging to a capsized canoe.

State Senator Edward J. Tyrell, who was boating on the lake, witnessed the overturning of the frail canoe and rowed frantically to the scene. He arrived at the overturned canoe just as two boys, Elmer Van, 14 years of age, and Charles Stricker, 15 years of age, both of 1411 Oxford street, Berkeley, were pulling Rheems from the water. Rheems was holding on to the bottom, but his older companion had disappeared beneath the surface. Senator Tyrell helped the boys to the landing, and the Rheems youth promptly returned to his home.

Rheems declared that he did not know the name of his companion other than that he was called "Mike." The body was not recovered until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

J. S. Gutleben, boat tender at the municipal bathhouse on the west shore of the lake, was approached by the eldest boy, who applied for a canoe ticket.

QUESTIONED HIM CLOSELY.

"I noticed that he was with the smaller boy, and as it is against our rules to give out canoes to boys under 15 years of age, I questioned him closely. He said that he was accustomed to handling a canoe and that he could swim. Later, when I noticed the little boy getting in the boat with him, I was about to call them back, but owing to his age and apparent ability to paddle the canoe, I felt they would be all right. They had been out but a short time when I

Germany Will Borrow
$250,000,000 for War

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9, 2:15 p. m.—A dispatch to Reuters from Amsterdam quotes Berlin papers as saying that the directors of the Imperial Bank soon will publish the terms of the first German war loan. It is said that the loan will be $250,000,000, consisting of 5 per cent treasury bonds. The bonds will be issued at 97.50. The loan will not be redeemable until 1924. The amount of the first issue is not stated.

British People Offer
Homes to Belgians

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The hospitality of the British nation has been offered by the Government to those who lost their homes and have been rendered destitute by the destruction of Louvain and other Belgian towns. There are indications that the invitation will be accepted on a large scale and the Government has arranged for the reception and entertainment of these sufferers in London.

Appropriate Million for Consular Service

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Senate today passed the million dollar appropriation necessary for the diplomatic and consular service occasioned by the European war. It has already passed the House and now goes to the President.

AUSTRIAN SLAYS ARE FORCED INTO BATTLE FRONT, WOUNDED SAY

LONDON, Sept. 9, 10:25 a. m.—The correspondent of the Central News at Petrograd wires:

"The Slavonic parties of Austria arriving here as prisoners of war declare they were placed in front of the battle line purposely by the Austrians."

"It is proposed to lodge the wounded Austrians and Germans in the empty German and Austrian embassies."

"Trains filled with prisoners and large numbers of Russians and Austrians wounded at Lemberg have arrived here."

TWO GERMAN MERCHANT SHIPS SUNK

French and British
Cruisers in Atlantic
Sink Vessels

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—A dispatch from Bordeaux to the Havas Agency states that two German merchant ships have been sunk in the Atlantic by the French cruisers Conde and Descartes aided by the British cruiser Bristol.

MINE TRAWLER CAUGHT.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—According to the Central News, a trawler which arrived today reports that a British gunboat captured a trawler purporting to belong to the British cruiser Bristol.

APPEAL SENT BY EMPEROR TO WILSON

LONDON, Sept. 9, 11:10 a. m.—There has been published in Copenhagen a telegram which Emperor William sent to President Wilson under date of September 4, telegraphs the Copenhagen correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph.

"In this message Emperor William protests against the use by England of dum dum bullets and against the participation of the Belgian population in war."

"Emperor William adds in his communication to Mr. Wilson that his generals have in certain cases been compelled to punish the Belgians, and he expresses his deep regret at the destruction of Louvain and other interesting places."

The communication given by the Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Telegraph undoubtedly is the message referred to by the North German Gazette of Berlin, the official organ of the German government.

Information that this newspaper had knowledge of the sending of this communication reached London early this morning.

The German embassy today received the following despatch from its foreign office:

"The North German Gazette publishes text of Kaiser's telegram to President Wilson concerning the British-French use of dum-dum bullets and Belgian population."

CZAR'S TROOPS ARE ADVANCING STEADILY, IS ALLIES' REPORT

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The German embassy today received this wireless from Berlin:

"Breslau Silesian landwehr captured seven-teen officers, thousand men, all Russian Imperial guard."

The place of the encounter was not given. At first the embassy believed the guard had been captured at Breslau, but a study of the dispatch convinced officials that it referred to a capture by the landwehr from Breslau and Silesia.

LOSSES ENORMOUS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9, 4:55 a. m.—The correspondent of the Times at Petrograd sends the following:

"The extent of the losses during the first six weeks of the war places all previous casualties far in the background. Not less than 10,000 dead Germans were counted in the trenches after one engagement in Eastern Prussia."

"On the fateful Sept. 1, when two Russian corps came to death grips with four German corps north of Soldau, the losses of both sides totalled between 60,000 and 70,000, the majority being Germans."

RUSSIANS WIN AT RAWA

By Associated Press.

ROME, Sept. 9, via London, 3:25 p. m.—A dispatch from Petrograd to the Messagero declares that the great battle at Rawa, in Galicia, 32 miles northwest of Lemberg, is over, and that the Russians have won a complete victory.

The Austrians are said to be retiring everywhere. Among the prisoners taken by the Russians are a large number of Germans. The Austrians have evacuated Russian Poland.

ANOTHER BATTLE NOW ON.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Russian embassy here today issued the following statement: "On September 8th a general engagement continued along the whole of the Austrian front. In the center the Austrian army is falling back. Near Ravarusska a stubborn battle is being fought with considerable Austrian forces. Our troops are also attacking a strongly fortified position at Gorodok, west of Leow. On the left bank of the Vistula river our advance is developing very favorably."

SERVIA INVADES AUSTRIA.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 8, 12:45 p. m.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Nish, Servia, says that the Servians are continuing their offensive movements against the Austrians in the direction of Vishegrad. They crossed the frontier on September 6th and continued to advance successfully. Everywhere the Austrians were thrown back to the left bank of the river Drina.

CLAIM 82,000 PRISONERS.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—A telegram from Petrograd to the Reuters Telegram Company says it is estimated that 82,000 prisoners taken in recent battles on the Austrian frontier, of whom 12,000 came from the Austria center, have all been sent to the interior governments of Russia, and that there is difficulty in knowing how to dispose of them.

Lord Kitchener's War
"Secret" Is Conceded to Be Known

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9, 1:40 p. m.—It is too early in the day as yet to judge how far the allies will be able to push their present advance to the east of Paris against the German invaders, but from what can be gathered from the fleeting glimpses of the battle zone, permitted by the censorship, the British and French armies seem to be effectively driving home their advantage and gaining impetus as they progress.

British optimism, which became more pronounced with the first announcement of the "turn of the tide," has been further heartened by the continuation of promising hopes from the front. For the first time since the beginning of hostilities an official British report has described the result of the operations as "very" satisfactory. Heretofore this adjective has never been used in any official report. This fact, coupled with the announcement of the French government that it expects its stay in Bordeaux to be short, and General Joffre's general order to the troops that the time had come to drive back the invaders, is accepted here as an indication that the German retrograde movement is likely to be permanent.

MAY DIVIDE FORCES.

Observers in London claim that if the allies' attack on the German center and to the left of the center, where the battle is raging so stubbornly, with alternate advances and retirements, is successful a wedge will be driven between the German right and left, which will place the enemy's right in a highly dangerous plight.

Lord Kitchener's "unknown factor," heretofore held to be a great secret, which has so altered the situation at the front, is now known to be the arrival of forces from India. Two divisions of infantry and a brigade of cavalry constitute these forces.

A dozen Indian potentates have been selected to accompany these expeditionary forces. These include Sir Pertab Singh, Sir Ganga Bahadur, Maharaja of Bikaner and Sir Bhulindra Singh, Maharaja of Patiala.

WAR BULLETINS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The Standard quotes the Russian and French embassies as denying the presence in France of a Russian force.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The king and queen of Roumania are expected to join Prince William of Wied, until recently the ruler of Albania, at Lugano, Switzerland, in a few days.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The Express states that the resignation of Emperor William from his office as admiral of the British fleet does not appear to have reached the authorities in London. The September navy list still includes his name among the honorary officers and also that of Prince Henry of Prussia.

BORDEAUX, via London, Sept. 9.—Des Armes, a newspaper issued by the minister of war, declares there is every reason to expect that the stay of the French government in Bordeaux will be short.

Umpire Is Hit and Knocked Unconscious

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—In the second inning of the second Boston and Philadelphia League game today Umpire Quigley at the plate, was knocked unconscious by being hit on the throat by a foul tip from Byrne's bat. He was carried off the field by three doctors.

GERMAN RIGHT WING IS FORCED BACK BY ENGLISH ONSLAUGHT

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 9, 1:15 p. m.—British officers and soldiers arriving from the front today declare that the four days battle which still continues to the east of Paris is being carried on furiously.

They assert that the French captured a considerable number of field and machine guns, while the Germans often surrendered in groups.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 9, 3:05 p. m.—An official communication issued this afternoon says the situation remains satisfactory. The German right is retreating before the English. The French center is slowly advancing. The situation on the right is unchanged.

The statement explains: "First—On the left wing, although the Germans have been reinforced, the south remains satisfactory. The enemy is retreating before the British army."

"Second—At the center our advance is slow but general. On the right wing the action of the enemy against the great circle of Nancy in the Vosges and in Alsace remains unchanged."

FRENCH IN ALSACE.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9, 12:10 p. m.—A dispatch to the Central News from Basel, Switzerland, via Rome, says that the Germans have evacuated Upper Alsace.

GERMAN ARMY EXHAUSTED.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 9, 6:55 a. m.—The German progress seems to have been rapid and too precipitate in its eagerness to get to the gates of Paris, for they arrived out of breath and to all appearances out of ammunition, which may explain why they did not pursue their original plan.

All prisoners, of whom 300 or more arrived in Paris yesterday, appear fatigued and harassed, and the spirit of the army seems to be everything that is different from the conquerors who pushed back the army of defense from the frontier and reached the gates of the capital in ten days.

Whether they hoped to gain time by a tangent move away from Paris, or, as some military critics suppose, aimed to effect a junction with the army of the Crown Prince, which was to come from the direction of Longwy, the developments of the last four days prove that it was a grave error.

The army, already weakened by forced marches, constant fighting en route and now further enfeebled by the engagements of the last four days is not, in the opinion of experts, prepared for such a big enterprise as the siege of Paris even if it retrieve its fortunes in the battle now in progress.

The only hope of the Germans, therefore lies in the armies on the northeastern frontier coming to the rescue, and this hope now seems too long deferred.

ENGLISH REPORT CAPTURES.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The British embassy today received the following dispatch from its foreign office:

"Following is official communique of the French government, September 8th: 'The Anglo-French forces have taken many prisoners, including a battalion of infantry, a mitrailleuse company and many caissons.'"

ROUMANIA CHEERS RUSSIA.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9, 12:10 p. m.—A telegram received here from Bucharest, Roumania, says the Russian victories in Galicia over the forces of the dual monarchy have aroused the Roumanians to almost frantic excitement. Thousands of Roumanians demon-

SAW COMPANION DROWN IS OIL MAGNATE'S SON

THESE ARE THE BOYS WHO RESCUED RICHARD RHEIMS AT LAKE MERRITT TODAY WHEN ANOTHER BOY WAS DROWNED. THE ARE: ELMER VAN (LEFT) AND CHARLES STRICKER.

LAD DROWNED AS CANOE IS UPSET

Rescued Companion Son of Vice President of Standard Oil Company. (Continued From Page 1) heard a commotion and shouts on the water and saw that a canoe had overturned. After returning to the boathouse Senator Tyrrell was considerably fatigued from his over-exertion in rowing to the scene of the disaster. He had been out on the lake taking an exercise pull. Several boats equipped with grappling irons, in charge of the police, were sent out into the lake and divers attempted to locate the body. STOOD IN CANOE. The lad who was saved from drowning is the son of W. S. Rheims, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company of California, whose home is in Orchard street. According to the boat tenders at the municipal boathouse, young Rheims was with a youth who apparently was not so well dressed as himself, and it is believed that the younger boy, knowing he could not get a boat himself, picked up the youth and got him to apply for a boat. Other boys who were canoeing in the vicinity reported that they had seen the older boy standing up in the canoe and that they had called to him. "Cut it out," when the splash occurred. They hurried to the canoe, which was the distance of a block away, and succeeded in pulling young Rheims from the water when Senator Tyrrell pulled alongside in a boat in which he was rowing with his wife.

BETTER WAR NEWS, IS PROMISE OF ENGLAND By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 9.—Home Secretary McKenna has taken charge of the work of the official press bureau. In this connection he made the announcement today that steps had been taken in the recent organization of the cable censorship work to provide for the prompt transmission to the United States and to the dominion of news passed by the bureau for publication in this country. Everything passed by the censors for Great Britain henceforward may be sent anywhere in the world. Additional officers, McKenna continued, had been appointed on the staff of Sir John French, the commander-in-chief of the British force on the continent, with the object of securing full information for publication. McKenna declined to commit himself as to when war correspondents might be allowed to enter the zone of warfare. He said that all possible information consistent with the need of secrecy regarding the disposition of the allied forces in the field would be given to the press.

Tennis Players Find Suicide in Shrubbery SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Players at the tennis court at Golden Gate park were startled to hear a pistol shot this afternoon and making their way into the shrubbery near by, several racket wielders discovered the body of a man. He had shot himself in the head and lay dead. Beside him was a copy of a newspaper giving account of a German victory over the French. A search of the suicide's pockets revealed the fact that his name was probably Andy Huber, a Frenchman. He was about 65.

Sudden Hot Wave Is Felt in Oakland The sudden change in the climatic conditions was keenly felt in Oakland today. When the hot wave raised the mercury on 73 degrees at noon Professor Charles Schuchter, director in charge of Chabot observatory, stated that the weather today is not unusual, but it is a complete change from the cold weather that we have had recently.

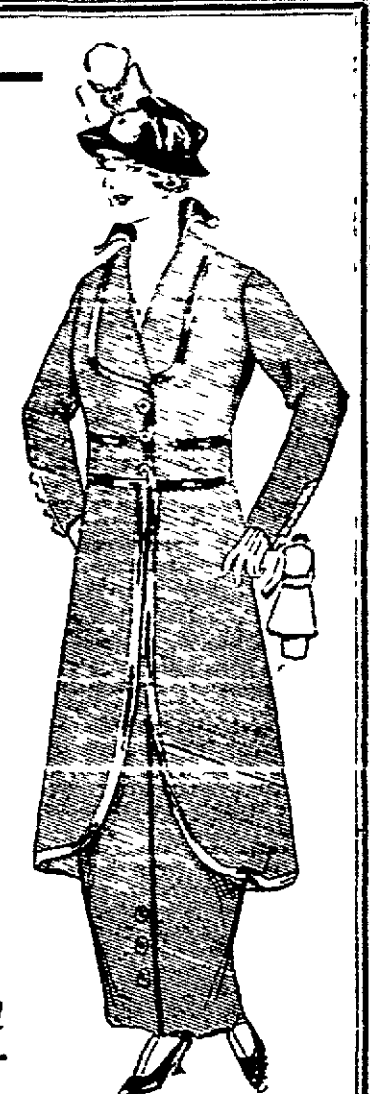

HUSBAND, ARRESTED, SAYS HE FEARED WIFE SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—With the arrest of George Murphy of the Hillside apartments, on a charge of exhibiting a deadly weapon this afternoon, the story of an alleged shooting on a Great Northern train four years ago, was repeated. Murphy was taken into custody at the instance of his wife Vera to whom he was married a month ago. The couple had been quarreling and Murphy told the police that he feared for his life. He explained his terror by saying his wife was formerly Mrs. Vera Prosser, wife of Dr. Prosser of Seattle, who was killed on a Great Northern train in Montana in August, 1910. Mrs. Prosser was arrested for the murder but was acquitted, according to Murphy's story.

UNDERGOES OPERATION. SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 9.—Thomas Rose Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rose, has undergone a successful operation for appendicitis in Oakland. He was operated on by Dr. B. F. Mason and Dr. Derrick.

CORNERSTONE FOR CLUBHOUSE LAID

Archbishop Riordan Conducts Elaborate Services at San Mateo. SAN MATEO, Sept. 9.—In the presence of Knights of Columbus and their friends from San Francisco and the bay cities, Archbishop P. W. Riordan laid the cornerstone of the handsome Catholic Club building here this afternoon. The event was marked by elaborate ceremonies and festivities which continued throughout the day and which closed the Catholic Club fair that has been in progress since Monday.

INJURED WHILE RIDING HORSE JUMPED CLIFF MISS ELISE McFARLAND. The excursionists arrived on special trains, leaving San Francisco at 1.30. The members of the San Mateo Council met the visiting Knights at the station and a parade was formed to escort them to the building site at the corner of Baldwin avenue and Griffith street. The cornerstone ceremony began at 2.30 o'clock. An address was made by Archbishop Riordan. An extensive program of sports was held in the afternoon at El Palomar field on the estate of Charles W. Clark, which included a polo game between two crack teams. Dinner served to the visitors by the San Mateo county ladies on the building site. The grand ball and high carnival will bring to a close the three days of merriment.

COURTS IN WRANGLE OVER FILM OF WAR SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Police Judge Crist has been cited to appear before Judge Seawell next Friday and show cause why he should not quash a search warrant giving the police permission to enter the premises of Marion H. Kohn, proprietor of a moving picture show, and seize certain war films. Judge Seawell issued a writ of review. The warrant was applied for by Corporal Peter A. Peshon, the Anthony Comstock of the police department. Kohn declares the warrant does not charge that the films were to be used for an unlawful purpose.

BILL WOULD AUTHORIZE PURCHASE OF COPPER WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—A bill to authorize purchase of not more than 15,000,000 pounds of copper was introduced today by Representative McDonald of Michigan. It is identical with the bill introduced by Senator Ashurst to help the emergency.

TEACHER WINS IN LEGAL FRAY

Militant Pedagogue's Official Accuser Doesn't Press Charge. PLEASANTVILLE, Sept. 9.—Katherine Coughlin, the militant teacher, took all honors yesterday in her brush with the law, as Robert Meeder, the school trustee, failed to appear in the justice court to substantiate his charges of malicious mischief for breaking two padlocks on her school house door. She has delivered an ultimatum to the school trustees to remove the new padlock by Friday morning, else she will again break in. She still maintains that her certificate was suspended illegally and as a last resort will appeal to the State superintendent.

Santa Rosa, Sept. 9.—Thomas Jefferson Gregory, a resident of this city for 16 years, and formerly one of the best known water front reporters in San Francisco, died here last night at the age of 61.

Santa Rosa, Sept. 9.—William W. Felt, Sr., father of County Clerk W. W. Felt Jr., passed away yesterday morning. The deceased was a native of Pennsylvania, 72 years of age, and served the last two years of the Civil War with the 4th Illinois volunteers. He went to Kansas after the war, where he married Cecelia Prager, December 25, 1876. He leaves the widow and a son. Deceased has resided here many years, being prominently connected with Ellsworth Post G. A. R., being a past commander and president of the Sonoma County Poultry Pioneers' association.

Roentgen Gives Up His English Medal

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The Frankfurt correspondent of the Berlin "Lokal Anzeiger" says Professor Roentgen, the discoverer of the X-ray, has given the Red Cross the gold medal which it had won of gold which the Royal Society presented to him in honor of his discovery. Professor Roentgen said he did not wish to keep the medal any longer in view of the attitude of England in this war.

OAKLAND MAN TELLS OF WAR

Dr. M. M. Enos Returns From Europe After Many Trying Experiences.

"Despite the statements of absolute neutrality, if Spain and Portugal aren't mobilizing, I don't know what you'd call it. Great forces of troops were out every day on practice marches, Lisbon was crowded with soldiers, and the excitement was intense."

So declared Dr. M. M. Enos, of Oakland, who returned today after a trip in which, caught in the center of the European maelstrom, he underwent perils and hardships, and finally returned home only through the absolute interference of the American consul at Lisbon.

Going to Europe to attend the International Congress of Surgeons, Dr. Enos was in Vienna at the time the funeral of the assassinated Crown Prince was held. Here he saw the monarchs of Europe in the great funeral procession which preceded the military war now raging. He was in Paris when the war-mad population was in chaos. He saw Americans, penniless, practically starving in the streets of Paris. He himself went hungry for days. He fled to Lisbon, where he finally was enabled to secure passage to America on the Infanta Isabel, from Cadiz, Spain, after he and other Americans had attempted to charter a vessel to reach this country.

"Paris is indescribable," declared the Oakland physician today, on arriving at his home, the Hotel Oakland. "The people simply went wild. The emergency currency put out by the government was rejected. Ordinary greenbacks were rejected. I saw Americans practically starving in the streets. Many had German travelers' checks, given out in New York by the Hamburg American lines. These were refused everywhere. I had plenty of paper money, but went hungry myself. Even Frenchmen went hungry during these times."

"In Berlin I was impressed by the fact that everyone is a soldier. Even the bell boys at the hotel had military training, and were ready to fight."

"In Lisbon the soldiers are mustering and continually drilling—and I have heard soldiers themselves say that they were anxious to get into the war. Europe is war mad. I cannot describe the scenes I have seen and that other Americans have described to me."

"The people know nothing about the war. They know that there is fighting and that their soldiers are leaving. Outside of that no news reaches them. They gather in front of banks, much as you see people here gathered in front of an accident. There is no system—no knowledge—just panic. Europe is indeed crazy."

"There has been complaining against American consuls abroad for my part. I found that the American consulates cared for their people paid fares and hotel bills for stranded Americans, taking their notes. The trouble was that in Paris, for instance, there were many native born Americans who had lived there all their lives, and were practically French, but who, at the first sign of trouble, proclaimed their American citizenship, and, knowing the language and ways of France, got accommodations and transportation ahead of the real Americans—the tourists."

"It was the American consul at Cadiz who finally got us transportation after we had despaired of leaving Portugal. I shall never visit Europe again."

Wilson Joins "Buy a Bale of Cotton Club"

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—President Wilson yesterday joined the "Buy a Bale of Cotton Club" by ordering from the head of the organization in Georgia $50 worth of cotton. Senator Hoke Smith told him that people throughout the south were joining the movement to take up the cotton crop left over by the European war.

Senator Smith also told the president that next year the cotton crop would be cut in half and that wheat and other products would be substituted.

HARVARD AND PRINCETON MEET IN FINAL MATCHES

GARDEN CITY, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Harvard and Princeton met here today in the final foursome and two-some matches for the intercollegiate team championship. Pennsylvania, Cornell and Williams were eliminated during the first two days of the tourney.

The first of the two rounds today consisted of three foursome matches, the twosomes being down for the afternoon.

DECEASED GOVERNMENT

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 9.—An investigation by a congressional committee shows that the Argentine Government has been defrauded of more than $11,000,000 in the construction of the Congressional building, which is now known as the Palace of Gold. Prices of food, drugs and clothing have been unwarrantably advanced and unemployment is increasing.

COMMITTEES ORGANIZED; PREPARE FOR CAMPAIGN

Republicans Pledge Support to Fredericks and Knowland as First Act

Voting support to Congressman Joseph R. Knowland and Captain John D. Fredericks, candidates for United States Senator and Governor respectively, as leaders of Republicanism in the State of California, the Republican County Central Committee formally organized yesterday in Department 5 of the Superior Court, electing as chairman Clinton G. Dodge, who during the committee's temporary organization served as presiding officer, and also electing the other officers of the de facto committee as follows: Secretary, Walter J. Seaborn; treasurer, Louis Abernethy; and vice-chairman, Mrs. C. S. Chamberlain.

The meeting was devoid of speech-making, the committee members being there only to work, according to the legal requirements of the session, which was held in conformity with the State election laws. The committee will meet Monday night to take up its first matters of business.

Following the election of officers, a committee of three was appointed to draw up rules for organization, this committee being appointed as follows: Walter B. Fawcett (chairman), J. Rollin Fitch and Mrs. E. H. Platts. A set of rules, providing for an official meeting every first Tuesday of the month and outlining orders of business, was adopted. A headquarters committee was appointed, consisting of W. B. Fawcett, Charles Murrell and E. L. Vander Nulken. An invitation was voted Miss Mollie Connors and Mrs. W. S. Peters to act as an auxiliary to the Republican party in connection with the three women members of the committee. Mrs. C. S. Chamberlain, Miss Camilla Buergermeister and Mrs. S. H. Platts. "The need of a strong woman's organization in the coming campaign," declared Fawcett, "is great, and the success of the women's meeting before the primaries shows this. They held the most successful meeting of the campaign. I believe that this auxiliary will prove invaluable to the party. The motion was carried, Secretary Seaborn being instructed to transmit the official invitations at once."

"I should suggest," said Chairman on the face of official returns, received nomination which Mr. Adams is entitled to have, and I desire him to have that to which he is rightfully entitled. After an examination of the law, I find only two solutions. I will only adopt the latter course. It will only be necessary to open the ballots in front of 35 of Berkeley, and it will not take more than half an hour of the court's time.

Assuring you of my hearty co-operation in bringing about a correction of a situation which I am not responsible for, I remain, very respectfully yours,

EDW. J. TYRRELL

The Democratic Committee elected John J. McDonald as chairman and R. J. Kelly as secretary. Mr. McDonald was elected vice-chairman and A. P. Harwood treasurer. A set of rules providing for order of business at meetings was adopted, completing the legal organization.

The progressives will organize tomorrow or Friday, when Frank Dedo and George Seebek, who got the votes, will decide the issue by flipping a coin. Credentials will then be issued.

ORGANIZE ACROSS BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Pursuant to law, the Republican, Democratic and Progressive county central committees elected at the primary met in the city hall last night, organized and elected officers.

Harmony reigned at the meeting of the Republican committee. There was a little imbroglio at the Bourbon session. The progressives had no discussion. Colonel Albert Castle was re-elected chairman of the Republican county central committee. He was opposed by R. J. Armstrong. The vote was: Castle 52, Armstrong 17.

John Donohue was chosen vice-chairman to succeed Fred L. Hansen, who was not a candidate for the office. James P. Anthony was elected secretary, vice Charles Forbes. Anthony contested with A. C. Keane. Hansen nominated Charles Forbes, but Forbes declined to run. Charles Bredhoff was named treasurer without opposition, to succeed Alexander Brewster.

There was some discussion over a resolution introduced by Ralph Hathorn calling for the appointment of a campaign committee.

Henry M. Owens and Oscar Greenbaum, chairman and secretary respectively of the old campaign committee of the Republican county central committee, were reappointed by Colonel Castle. A resolution supporting Captain John D. Fredericks for Governor was passed. Further widening of the breach between the two factions of the local Democracy was the result of a resolution passed last evening at the organization of the Democratic county central committee whereby an extra committee to consist of 25 men from each assembly district was authorized. This committee is to be chosen by seven men appointed by the chairman of the central body, the 25 to include the committeemen from each district. Their appointment lies in the power of the McNab contingent.

Timothy E. Treacy, Dan O'Connell and Thomas E. Curran objected to giving this extra power to the chairman of the committee, but were voted down. Treacy suggested that the 25 be appointed by the committeemen in each district, but lost by a vote of 14 to 12, after which the original resolution, which was proposed by Harry I. Stafford, was carried by 12 to 10.

On the first night of the evening was over the election of a chairman for the county organization without a jar. John F. Tyrrell was elected chairman unanimously and all the rest of the slate went through with equal ease.

Thomas A. Brown was again chosen secretary, with the other officers as follows: Treasurer, H. Mortimer Smith; first vice-chairman, Thomas W. Nowlin; second vice-chairman, George W. Pennington; third vice-chairman, an office created for the special benefit of the one woman on the committee, Miss Rose Steinhart; sergeant-at-arms, John F. Sweeney.

WOMEN ADOPT PLATFORM

The Women's State Democratic club of California, in convention assembled, yesterday declined to commit itself to a proposition to bribe women to vote. Mrs. Anthony Cammell proposed that the poll tax be extended to women, with exemption for those who perform their duty on election day. The suggestion met instant defeat, though the women did not say whether they refused to abstain from having to pay.

The convention adopted a legislative program and a long list of indorsements of policies and of candidates in the coming election.

The resolutions were the work of Mrs. Grace B. Calkin, receiver of the land office and one-time secretary of the state central committee, and of Mrs. Anthony Cammell.

The ladies' platform indorsed the President, looked for taxation, for a woman's service bill, child labor legislation, civil service reform, this last particularly to remove the blanket protection on "political" employees in office when civil service goes "in effect."

Both the platform committees bewailed the inadequacy of the present primary

COMMISSION HEARS MACHINIST WOES

Industrial Relations Body Told of Unorganized Conditions in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9.—Chaotic conditions prevail among machinists of Los Angeles, due to their unorganized condition, C. L. Crow, business agent for the International Association of Machinists testified today before the federal industrial relations commission. "The wages paid here are on an average of 25% below the union scale," he said. "Some men, especially in the automobile industry, are paid only for the time they actually are at work. When there is no work in the shops competent workmen sometimes stand around idle for from an hour to five hours and do not earn a cent."

A strike was called among the machinists here in 1910 and in August 1912. It terminated without the men winning their contentions. Efforts still are being made to organize the workers.

According to Crow, workers were brought here as strike-breakers from all parts of the country and badly mistreated during the strike. He said scores of men who responded to advertisements were given employment after being hired here and that hundreds of them visited the city and were convinced that the situation presented to the commission a postal card with a return card attached which, he said, the Southern Pacific Railroad sent to workmen in other states in an effort to induce them to come here. The card contained a picture of "Hired hand" living in a Los Angeles park and printed matter set forth that manifold advantages awaited the worker here. A note which General Harrison Grey Otis sent Chairman Walsh today advising him that James B. McNamara, who was convicted of placing a bomb under the Times Building, was a union printer, was disputed today by Charles Scott, an organizer for the International Typographical Union.

An attempt to connect him with an Indianapolis local failed, Mr. Scott told the commission.

The general's note was occasioned by a statement Mr. Scott made on the witness stand yesterday to the effect that in 25 years he had never known of a union printer being arraigned for an act of violence.

Protective Association of which organization all of the linotype operators in the Times office are members, is composed largely of strike-breakers who have been expelled from organized bodies.

OAKLAND WINS IN CLOSE BALL GAME

Ables' Fine Pitching Gives Local Team Victory Over S. F., 2 to 0.

Two big southpaws, Ables representing Oakland and Liefield to the S. F. San Francisco and one of the prettiest pitching duels at the local ball park this morning that has ever been seen here. Oakland won the game 2 to 0. Both Liefield and Big Jimmie were in perfect condition for the fray, and at no time during the game did either have an advantage. That Liefield and Ables were well matched through Schmidt's error, otherwise the game might still be in doubt.

In the seventh inning, with Zacher and Hettling in first and third base, the new second-sacker came to the plate and the new pitcher played has not made much of an impression on the fans, slightly to leftfield. It was a hard drive, but Liefield checked it down and threw to Schmidt in plenty of time to beat off the ball. The Oakland batter, however, did not back the ball and both Zacher and Hettling crossed the plate.

San Francisco had runners on the bases nearly every inning, but the hit that meant a run was not forthcoming. The best chance the locals had of tying the score was in the sixth inning. Liefield and Schmidt were walked in succession. At that point of the game Ables began to get wild, so Bill Evers was sent into the game. Corban was caught off second base by Liefield's throw and Mundorf threw out. The score:

MISSIONS DEFEAT HOGAN'S TIGERS

Malarkey and Arrellanes Down Venice on Ewing Field.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—The newly christened Missions again demonstrated how they could play under a different name today, when they beat the Venice Tigers here by the score of 5 to 1. CATCHES 23-POUND HALIBUT

HERMOSA BEACH, Cal., Sept. 9.—Wm. Brown caught a 23-pound halibut off the municipal pier here, a large crowd was attracted by the sight between the man and the game fish. It was the largest catch made in many years here. After the catch was made, Brown again cast his line into the water and hooked two fine large yellowtail on two hooks of the same line. It took all the strength that he could gather to pull them to the surface of the water, and to this remedy, a St. Louis man on the pier they both pulled from the hooks and fell into the water, leaving the hooks perfectly straight.

PRIESTS ARE SENT OUT OF MEXICO

Tells Exciting Stories of Persecutions and Final Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Telling exciting stories of the persecutions of the church in Mexico and a sudden flight in the night from Manzanillo to avoid the onslaught of a band of Yaqui Indians, a company of Catholic priests and forty-seven nuns arrived here today on the British steamer City of Mexico. The priests spent nine days in prison at Guadalajara before they were sent on to Manzanillo. Some of them were placed in private houses and fared somewhat better.

The company arriving today was composed of eighteen Jesuit fathers, two Marist fathers, ten other priests, and fifteen nuns. They were housed in the homes of citizens until the Constitutionalist lines to Manzanillo were open. Then learning of an attack planned by 500 Yaqui Indians on the priests, it was decided to smuggle them on board the City of Mexico at night, and this method was adopted.

The refugees bring stories of the arrest of the Rev. Father Gerard Deconinck and his fellow priest, Father Joseph, at Tehuantepec. He was placed in jail, but subsequently released. The priests also say that confiscations occurred at Durango and Monterrey, where the fathers were ordered to leave their houses and the other houses and monasteries about the bay.

The arrival of the steamer City of Mexico, carrying 53 priests and 47 nuns expelled from Mexico has given the United States immigration and quarantine officials new problems to solve. The vessel is a British steamer which formerly served as a transport in the service of the Mexican government.

On leaving Manzanillo Captain Starkey declares he was ordered to accept for passage to this city, the Sisters of Charity and the Catholic priests. As the vessel was already crowded with 152 Chinese en route to China, Captain Starkey protested, but his objections were overruled and he was forced to bring the extra passengers with him. The vessel dropped anchor off Mexico's wharf shortly before 2 o'clock this morning, and Dr. Drew of the quarantine service and the Boarding Officer Sprague decided to defer the matter of the landing of the clergy and nuns to Chief Quarantine Inspector Glover.

MAY BE CONTRABAND.

The City of Mexico carries a mixed cargo from Mexico, as well as considerable European freight. Some of this may be contraband of war and it is not known whether it will be permitted to be landed.

According to Judge Brown, assistant collector of the Port J. O. Davis, the customs officials will not interfere in any way with the landing of the passengers of the City of Mexico.

"I am of the opinion that they will be permitted to land," said the judge. "I believe that the customs officials will pass the steamer. The quarantine officers, however, have something to say about it."

The immigration authorities will have to keep guard on the Chinese and see that none of them escape from the vessel while she is in port. It is understood that arrangements are being made to care for the nuns and priests who arrived unaware. Indeed, there was no news of the City of Mexico's presence in this vicinity until she was sighted by the lookout at the Golden Gate at midnight.

Pierre Loti, Aged 64, Volunteers Service

PARIS, Sept. 9.—Pierre Loti, the novelist, who under his real name, Louis Martin, is a captain of the French naval reserves, after soliciting in vain for a post of combat in the navy, has asked to be joined to the marines serving as guards in Paris. He offers to serve without pay. He is 64 years of age. He entered the navy in 1877 and saw active service in the Tonkin, China, campaign.

RED CROSS WAITS AT ANCHOR FOR CLEARANCE

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—With her fires blazing, the steamship Red Cross remained at her anchorage in the Hudson river today awaiting orders to start on her voyage of mercy to the war-torn European battlefields. Her sailing was delayed yesterday by the interference of the British and French governments, who objected to any man in the crew of 270 being other than an American citizen.

PROMOTE CANAL BUILDERS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The bill extending the thanks of Congress to the builders of the Panama canal and authorizing the promotion of Colonel George W. Goethals, chairman of the commission, and Brigadier-General William C. Gorham, surgeon-general of the army, to be major-generals on their retirement, passed the House yesterday. Other officers named are Colonel L. F. Hodges, Lieutenant-Colonel William L. Siebert and Commander H. H. Rosseau. Each would be advanced one grade on retirement in recognition of their services.

PARIS CENSUS TAKEN.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—"A census was taken today of all persons left in Paris," says Reuters' Paris correspondent. "The object was to ascertain the number of persons who must be fed if there is a siege, and also the nature of their requirements. The heads of families were asked concerning children under fifteen months old, and those persons requiring special diets were requested to give particulars."

AUSTRIANS BOMBARD BUDA.

ROME, Sept. 5 (via Paris, Sept. 9).—News from Mount Lovchen, near Cattero, Austria, to the Giornale d'Italia says that a portion of the Austrian fleet left Cattaro and bombarded the coast between there and Montenegro, especially the village of Budua, recently occupied by the Montenegrins.

GERMANY RETALIATES IN ATTEMPT TO STARVE OUT

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 9.—The Berlin Vossische Zeitung asserts that as a counter movement against England's attempt to starve out Germany the Germans will take compensation in Belgium by seizing the financial services, taking control of every Belgian bank and all branches of the British, French and Russian banks. The newspaper, commenting on the triple entente agreement not to conclude peace separately, says to speak about peace at present is simply "political futurism."

The Berlin Vorwaerts says the agreement will make the war last longer.

ITALIAN RESERVES ARE FORBIDDEN TO DEPART

LONDON, Sept. 9, 12:10 p. m.—In a dispatch from Copenhagen a correspondent of the Central News says that General Manueff, the German military commander at Louvain, Belgium, has made an official report, in which he asserts that investigation has shown that it was Belgian soldiers who had civilian attire over their uniforms who fired on German soldiers from housetops of the city.

HAD CIVILIAN ATTIRE OVER THEIR UNIFORMS

LONDON, Sept. 9, 10:50 a. m.—In a dispatch from Bordeaux, the correspondent of the Havas Agency says that the chamber of commerce of Bourges, France, has requested the French Minister of Finance to arrange with the Bank of France for loans on security with which the manufacturers of Bourges would be enabled to resume work. Alexandre Ribot, the Minister of Finance, replied that the French Government could not order this, but that the Bank of France would extend to the industries of Bourges as large credits as possible.

Bourges Factories Ask Financial Aid

PARIS, Sept. 9, 10:50 a. m.—In a dispatch from Bordeaux, the correspondent of the Havas Agency says that the chamber of commerce of Bourges, France, has requested the French Minister of Finance to arrange with the Bank of France for loans on security with which the manufacturers of Bourges would be enabled to resume work. Alexandre Ribot, the Minister of Finance, replied that the French Government could not order this, but that the Bank of France would extend to the industries of Bourges as large credits as possible.

After Vacation Peel Your Discolored Skin

Women returning from the seaside with browned reddened or freckled complexions will be wise in immediately taking a course of treatment with the French-made skin cream. It will peel off the sun-burnt skin and reveal the healthy, youthful skin beneath. One ounce of this cream, obtainable at every drug store, is enough to make any discolored or spotted complexion clear, white and injury soft. Its action is so gentle no injury is caused and the face shows no trace of its use.

Burning heat, irritating winds and dirt are such wrinkle-makers that the daily use of the following skin cream is highly advisable. At this season is highly advisable. Powdered saccharine, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, 4 pt. Used as a face bath this is a splendid skin remover and preventive.

Ally in England Are Not Organized

LONDON, Sept. 9, 4:05 p. m.—Home Secretary McKenna, speaking in the House of Commons this morning, declared there was no organization among the allies in England, the purpose of which was the carrying out of hostile acts, and he ridiculed the suggestion made in some quarters recently that there are 250,000 Germans in this country with arms in their possession. Continuing, the Secretary said that the police and military were alert for individual cases of espionage. Between 8,000 and 9,000 such cases already had been investigated, but only ninety suspects have been held.

Montenegrin Troops Intrenched in Bosnia

PARIS, Sept. 9.—A Havas Agency dispatch from Rome says: News has reached here that the Montenegrin troops commanded by General Tucitch have occupied important points in Bosnia south of Sarajevo, the capital. The situation in North Albania continues serious.

King Sends Appeal to British Colonies

LONDON, Sept. 9, 3 p. m.—The official information bureau today gave out a message from King George to the British colonies. It is as follows: "During the last few weeks the peoples of my whole empire at home and over seas have moved with one mind and purpose to confront and overthrow an unparalleled assault on the community of civilization and the peace of mankind."

The calamitous conflict is not of my seeking. My voice has been cast throughout the world for peace. My ministers earnestly strove to allay the causes of the strife and to appease differences with which my empire was not concerned. Had I stood aside when, in defiance of pledges to which my kingdom was a party, the soil of Belgium was violated and her cities made desolate, when the very life of the French nation was threatened by extinction, I should have sacrificed my honor and given to destruction the liberties of my empire and of mankind.

"I rejoice that every part of the empire is with me in this decision."

Joffre Sees Moment to Drive Enemy Back

LONDON, Sept. 9.—A Reuter dispatch from Antwerp says that an official communication there refers to an order by General Joffre, September 7, in which he alludes to the impatience of his troops and says:

"This is no longer the moment to look behind, but the time has come to attack and drive back the enemy and to defend the ground regained, at any cost."

The communication then gives the results of recent operations. Under pressure of the allies' army on the left, the first German army has been obliged to retire towards the northeast, both on the front and the flank.

"No serious engagement," the communication continues, "has occurred between the second, third and fourth German armies, but before the fifth German army which is held by the French right, a fierce engagement is in progress. On Sunday evening the garrison at Verdun made a sortie and captured a number of supply convoys destined for the fifth German army."

German Aviator Has Pistol Duel in Clouds

BERLIN, Sept. 9, via London, Sept. 9.—Major Werner of the aviation corps returned today from the front after making repeated scouting flights over the French and British troops. Speaking of his experience, he described as his most thrilling flight one in which he battled with two aeroplanes of the enemy, one a British biplane and the other a French monoplane. Both were much faster than about me for a long time," he said. "My two enemies flew beside and in front of me, and I was forced to throw bombs but apparently they had none. Both of them fired revolvers repeatedly in my direction and I replied with my revolver but none of the shots were effective."

"After an anxious quarter of an hour, I drew them toward the German lines and they were compelled to withdraw."

Think Steamers Are Captured by Germans

STOCKHOLM, via London, Sept. 9.—Anxiety is felt over the non-arrival of the Finnish passenger steamer Svanborg coming from Rauma, Finland, with many British and Americans aboard. It is feared she was captured or sunk by German warships which have been watching for Russian reserves returning from America.

Anxiety also is felt for the steamer Torne, which left early Wednesday from this port.

President Discusses Finances With Roads

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The financial situation of the railroads of the country resulting from the European war was up for discussion at a conference at the White House today between President Wilson and a committee of railroad executives. They were to make a direct appeal to the President to aid them in devising means for dealing over obstacles their routes have been brought about in view of the conflict in Europe.

$26,000,000 War Bill Passed by Japanese

TOKYO, Sept. 9.—The Japanese Diet today adopted the war program of the Japanese government. It provides for a "war appropriation" of $26,000,000 (about $26,000,000). The vote was unanimous.

IRELAND WANTS WAR MUNITIONS NEW PLAYGROUND USED FIRST TIME

Must Protect Self Under Home Rule, Says Their Leader.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Ireland wants arms and ammunition, not to use in the European war, nor to fight Ulster, but to protect her interests when home rule is established. This was the statement of Richard McGee, a nationalist member of parliament from Mid Tynes to 3000 members of the United Irish League who met last night in a big uptown hall.

John Redmond had delegated him to come to this country in search of a supply of arms for the use of Irish volunteers at home. Mr. McGee said: "Arms obtained in this country, he reiterated, would be used simply as a protection for Ireland when we are self-governed."

In search of these arms, Mr. McGee first went to Belgium, where he purchased 50,000 rifles. Then the war broke out and the government took these rifles to use against Germany. Mr. McGee next went to Canada, only to find the British government had commandeered all the gun factories there. Then he came to the United States where, he said, he has already bought 35,000 rifles and sufficient ammunition.

The meeting adopted resolutions urging Prime Minister Asquith and the Liberal, labor and Irish members of parliament to put the Home Rule Bill in its present form on the statute books. The resolutions also expressed approval of the idea of armed nationalists of the south co-operating with the armed people of the north in defending their country and pleading the members of the various organizations joining in the resolution to maintain the strictest neutrality regarding the European war.

San Pablo Park Joy Square Given Christening by Boys and Girls.

BERKELEY, Sept. 9.—Admission Day was celebrated by school children this afternoon with a house warming and athletic events at San Pablo Park playground. Boys of the community gathered there this morning with rakes and hoes and put in the forenoon helping to beautify the park. The volunteers were divided into companies, each with a foreman.

At noon the boys were served with luncheon by a committee of thirty girls and women under the direction of Miss Marguerite Carlton. The mothers' clubs of the Lomafellow, Hawthorne and Lincoln schools gave valuable assistance.

The afternoon exercises commenced at 1:30 p. m. when the apparatus newly installed in the playground was christened by girls attending the festivities. A new 25-foot flagpole was installed and the flag floated at its head. Mayor Charles D. Heywood delivered an address in the middle of the afternoon, after which there was a baseball game between the South Berkeley Stars and the San Pablo Park Juniors.

A number of games and contests filled the remainder of the afternoon. There were present several members of the park and playground commission and many parents of the children who took part in the festivities.

BLACK JESTER WINNER OF ST. LEDGER STAKES

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The St. Ledger Stakes of 6500 sovereigns for entire colts and fillies foaled in 1911, distance about one mile and six furlongs, was run at Doncaster today and won by J. B. Joel's Black Jester. Sir John Thurst's Kenymore was second and his Crossingham was third. Eighteen horses ran.

Write in Candidates Must File Expenses

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 9.—"Write in" candidates who were nominated at the primary election cannot be granted credential certificates to the State convention unless they file their expense accounts with the Secretary of State. Statistician James Crenin has received an opinion from Attorney-General Webb to this effect.

STATE MILITIA OVERRULED BY COURT

United States Judge Bourquin
Sets Aside Motion of Butte Guardsmen.

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 2.—Judge George M. Bourquin in the United States District Court today overruled the motion of the National Guard of Montana to quash the application for a writ of habeas corpus asked in behalf of three men held prisoners by the military here. The Court gave the military officers until 2 o'clock this afternoon to show cause why the writ should not be issued. The Court's ruling holds that notwithstanding martial law is in effect here habeas corpus has not been suspended.

The statement of the mining companies operating in the Butte district that henceforth they will recognize neither the local union of the Western Federation of Miners nor the Butte Mine Workers' Union, the new independent organization, had no effect on the number of men who reported for work today.

The open shop announcement came so late last night that the miners have not had time to grasp fully the real meaning of the companies' announcement. Leaders of the two unions whose internal difficulties precipitated the trouble that resulted in having martial law proclaimed here refused to comment on the statement other than to say that time alone will show developments.

The companies will not discriminate against the unions, it is reported, and while the companies will not recognize the unions in their dealings with the employees it is probable that very few men will find work in the mines who are not union men.

ANTONY'S PRISONER.
The Court in its decision required the military officers to file an answer to the petition for habeas corpus this afternoon and stated that if no Federal investigation is evolved the entire proceeding would be dismissed for want of jurisdiction. Judge Bourquin declared that to the present the record in the case is incomplete, no allegations having been made as to the charges on which the three defendants, James Chapman, Ed Evans and William Malone, are being held by the soldiers.

The answers of the attorneys representing the militia this afternoon will be that the prisoners be held for the regular State tribunals, and that their detention at the present time is imperative, because of the acts of lawlessness which have been committed in Butte.

The Court held that the Governor had the right to proclaim martial law during a period of insurrection, and declared if the petitioners are not charged with an offense involving the Federal Government the petition will be dismissed and they must seek relief in the State courts.

SHOCKED BY PHONE,
ASKS BIG JUDGMENT
SPRINGFIELD, Miss., Sept. 2.—Many new actions involving legal entanglements of various kinds are being filed in the office of S. A. Reed, clerk of the circuit court, for the September term.

Having received a shock when she took down a receiver on a telephone July 11, which knocked her unconscious and has partially paralyzed her, as she claims, Mrs. M. T. Warren sued the Kansas and Missouri Telephone Company for $5000. The shock was received in the store of Frank P. White, 629 West Division street, she says. Mrs. Warren is also suing the mutual benefit department of the Order of Railway Conductors on an insurance policy which she alleges became due on the death of her husband, February 22, 1907. She asks payment of the principal, with 6 percent interest, from the death of her husband; $200 as a penalty, and $500 attorney fees.

FIND NO TRACE OF MISSING MAN

Police Search Proves Unavailing
in Locating Fred Buckhorn.

Fred Buckhorn, 5114 Congress avenue, disappeared September 2, and the police have been making an unavailing search for him. It is feared that he is mentally unbalanced, and is wandering in the hills, or has met with some mishap.

Buckhorn was seen in Hayward two days ago walking in the road. A friend who had not heard that the man was missing was driving along the road, and asked Buckhorn if he wanted a ride. "I'm going to the hills," answered Buckhorn in a peculiar manner.

Buckhorn was struck over the head some time ago by a policeman in San Francisco, who inflicted a severe wound with his club. Since that time he is alleged by his friends to have been mentally unbalanced. His wife and children are frantic with anxiety over Buckhorn's fate.

Buckhorn is described as 47 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches in height, weighing 165 pounds, with a scar on the left side of the head.

Y. W. C. A. TO OPEN
GYMNASIUM CLASS
Course in Physical Training
Aimed to Benefit Those in Need of Exercise.

The gymnasium class of the Young Women's Christian Association will open its fall term on Monday evening, September 14, at the Oakland High School, Twelfth street, between Grove and Jefferson. Dr. Florence Sylvester and Dr. Luella Stone Swauger will examine the women and girls desirous of joining the class without charge, they will advise the exercises most needed to correct defects and call attention to those which should be avoided.

Folk dances, basket ball and other games, Indian clubs, bar bells, dumb bells, breathing exercises, etc., will constitute the course in physical training. Those who are employed and compelled to sit at desks all day, and who are consequently in need of exercises, will find the course of particular benefit.

The class will be under the supervision of Miss Adele Place and two assistants, and a large membership is expected.

PERSONALS.

Miss Louise Gimbal is the house guest of her cousin, Miss Bessie Gimbal of Sacramento.

John A. Brennan has gone to Taft, where he has business interests.

Miss A. L. Downing is visiting her sister in Oroville.

Mrs. E. R. Jones left this week for Ukiah, where she went to attend the funeral of a relative.

BANKER WILL'S FORTUNE
FOR IMPROVING TOWN
DODGE CITY, Kan., Sept. 2.—George M. Hoover, former mayor and wealthy banker, who died recently, left more than $100,000 to Dodge City, it was discovered when his will was opened.

Hoover's wife died last spring. He had no children or near relatives. About $50,000 was left to relatives in Canada and to friends here, and $10,000 to build an auditorium for Dodge City, which has no theater or public meeting house.

In addition $1000 was left to each of the six churches here. The rest of the estate is to be invested and the income each year expended in beautifying the city.

Just Suicide; Box to Sleep in, and Fifty-Word Item

"A suicide down on Fourth street?" city editor yawned and looked about for a reporter.

"Get the dope on this, Jim," he called.

The street was deserted. Before a squall of rain, a black wagon and a few people hung around it, silent, with scared faces.

"Where was it?" asked the reporter.

"Up there." A negro jerked his thumb in the direction of a narrow hallway. "A cop and the coroner's up there now. You'll find 'em."

The hall was dark. A smell of gas came in sickening whiffs, mingling with steam of soap from the kitchen. At the head of the stairs a door was open. On the floor lay the crumpled body of a man, the knees drawn up towards the chin, the face hidden in the arms. Bligdy it lay, fully dressed except for the stockings feet. He had rolled off the bed and the fragments of a cuspidor lay strewn about, where he had struck it in his fall.

In the room stood a policeman and a fat man in shiny black, with a burned-out cigar stuck in one corner of his mouth and a bowler hat tilted far back on his head.

"What is it, boys?" asked the reporter.

"Oh, no class to this," growled the fat man. "He ain't worth bothering about; just a common suicide."

He scratched a match on his trouser leg and relighted his cigar.

"Got tired, maybe, and kicked the bucket. We couldn't even find his name. On the register? No, they don't need to do that in these places. There was a card marked J. Martin in his pocket. Maybe that's his name. Anyhow he can go by that as well as any other."

"Gee, not much of a story for me," grumbled the reporter. "Now, if it had only been a woman. Gas worked this time, all right."

"Gas," laughed the fat man. "We found three jets going when we got here. Sort of hard on the landlady."

Cigar smoke filled the room, drowning out the gas smell. A man with a stretcher came up the stairs.

"It's the old fellow's last ride, I guess," said the policeman. "Here, I'll help you."

Together they shoved the body on the stretcher.

Then the reporter went back and wrote a fifty-word story.

SCIENCE FIGHTING
SCOURGE OF ASIA

U. S. Directs Skill and Money to Save the City of New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Men of science are bringing their heaviest guns to bear on the city of New Orleans, where bubonic plague has broken out, but most of all they are seeking the hole in their sanitary defense through which the plague gained entrance to the city. Since the first sign of trouble in Mexico the surgeons and sanitary experts of the Public Health Service have drawn a dead line around New Orleans. But somewhere there was a gap and the plague—the "scourge of Asia"—slipped in and attacked the city.

From Washington the Public Health Service has sent some of its best surgeons and scientists. The State of Louisiana is pouring in the cream of its sanitary talent, and the rats of New Orleans, worst carriers of the disease known, are being hunted down and exterminated. But still New Orleans is afraid.

Who brought the plague to New Orleans? Was it brought by ship or train? Where are the present sources of plague? Shall New Orleans be cut off from commerce with the rest of the country, except by telegraph and telephone?

DID STEAMER BRING IT?
These are the questions the Public Health Service is daily asking itself, and they are questions to which strange answers to be no answer. One thing is certain. While the best surgeons in the country were guarding New Orleans and other Southern cities against a possible attack of Mexican typhus and yellow jack, the most terrible plague of all, bubonic, broke through their defenses.

New Orleans takes almost equal rank with New York and San Francisco as the port of call for tramp steamers. It is one of these tramp vessels, the surgeons believe, which brought the plague to New Orleans. The sanitary experts of the Public Health Service were not expected with unusual care against that particular form of plague. The service was watching every vessel from the unsafe ports of Mexico, Central and South America, from whence comes the typhus and yellow jack, but it wasn't expecting the bubonic pest.

From some source the plague got into the city and developed in the body of a boy named Jackson. That boy is now the key to the plague invasion. His movements will be investigated, and in this way the source of the malady may be determined and wiped out.

NOT CUT OFF.
It is fairly certain that the plague did not come from Mexico. Surgeons of the Public Health Service have been stationed at Mexican ports and their records are clean of plague reports.

It is not believed that it will be necessary to cut off New Orleans from rail or mail communication with the rest of the United States. This would result in a loss of millions of dollars, and in the end it would not justify itself, the surgeons believe.

The strictest quarantine is being thrown around the cases of plague which have developed already in New Orleans. The rats will be hunted down in every section of the city and the outbreak of the plague may result in the appointment of official rat catchers in other American cities.

But until the Public Health Service and State officials locate the source of the plague outbreak and destroy that source New Orleans fears another outbreak at any time.

SMUGGLE GEMS ON BIG SCALE

Government Defrauded of Millions by Operations of Organized Gangs.

Diamonds and other precious stones worth 3½ million dollars are smuggled into this country every month, defrauding the government of $700,000 duty, according to J. Warner Hutchins, former president of the National Jewelers' Association. Since the enforcement of the high tariff on importations of luxuries he said, an organized band of jewel experts have successfully operated a gigantic smuggling scheme, bringing into the United States from foreign diamond markets quantities of unset stones. The Canadian border is believed to be the hotbed of their activities. The smuggling operations have reached a point where they are said to threaten the business of every honest dealer.

Explaining the methods used by the smugglers, he said they operated through foreign agents, who were the actual purveyors of the jewels. These agents are not under surveillance of the police in the European markets, and can readily dispose with the world's largest diamond cutters without exciting suspicion. The stones are then delivered to the smuggler, who takes them in Canada duty free. There he prepares his plans to enter this country, and operates according to his individual system. Some of them swallow the stones, others secrete them in their clothing. Any scheme is used that offers the slightest possibility of evading the custom inspectors.

Having finally reached American soil with his valuable merchandise, the smuggler keeps under cover for a time, then reaches out among the honest dealers in the shops of unscrupulous retail dealers. There the smuggled jewels are offered for sale at prices often 40 to 50 percent below the legitimate figures.

Mr. Hutchins in pointing out the effect the smuggling operations have had on the business of the honest dealer, said that buyers who visit the different shops in this city, comparing prices, find a wide diversity of quotations on diamonds of similar weight. The purchase is eventually made where the price is lowest, thereby injuring the merchant who observes the ethics of the trade and deals only in duty-paid importations.

SAND DIET CURES TRIO OF STOMACH DISORDERS
MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 2.—After eating sand for more than a year to cure stomach disorders, former Congressman George W. Cromer, John W. Fitzgibbon, once assistant state factory inspector, and Harry W. Long, an attorney, say they have been cured completely. They say the sand never failed to relieve them whenever they had an attack.

"Should any trouble return," said Fitzgibbon, "I should immediately resort to the sand diet. Many people who have written to us have failed to grasp the idea."

The sand is not eaten as food, but is taken in digestion. It is especially valuable when mastication is poor, the sand serving to grind up the food. Chickens, turkeys and ostriches eat sand for the same purpose.

FIND GIRL'S BODY IN CENTER OF CORN FIELD

SCHULER, Neb., Sept. 2.—After a search of many hours, during which every man and boy and many of the women of this section tramped over fields and looked into wells, the body of Miss Louise Mick, 18 years old, was found buried in a shallow grave in the center of a cornfield, a mile from her home. Frank Field, a laborer, 50 years old, was arrested and taken to Columbus for safe keeping, because he was threatened by a mob, after being accused of the murder of the girl.

Field was captured while proving about the home of George Welch, a son of the field where the girl's body was found. In his pocket was $8, the exact amount stolen from the Mick home when the girl was kidnapped. His clothing also was stained with blood.

Miss Mick, as told in the Blade, was kidnapped from her home by a woman who bound the girl's mother and a woman visitor with wire, and gagged them, so that an alarm was not given for several hours.

HUNDREDS ATTEND MILLS' LECTURE

Addresses During Day Bring Great Throngs to Meeting.

There has been the first Unitarian held two such audiences in any, as filled the auditorium to overflow to Benjamin Fay opening lectures yesterday. A was introduced by Christo-Rues, and was welcomed with unadvised applause. The afternoon he spoke on "For Those Who Are Awake," course of the address he paid compliment to California, saying they seemed to him most progressive and enlightened in the world. The remarks which elicited the applause were those in which he expected the war in Europe to shake every monarch from throne and to shatter every fragments, to eventuate in a broader brotherhood and a mighty loosening of economic injustice and inequality among all the peoples of the earth. In the evening Mills delighted his hearers with his reading and novel expositions of "Omar the Tentmaker," and will continue his comments this evening on the topic, "The Riddles of the Rubaiyat." This lecture, and all those given for the balance of the week, will be held at Maple hall. Tomorrow's program will be: 10:30 a. m., "The Philosophy of Life"; 4 p. m., "Severity," and at 8:15 p. m., "Concentration." Benjamin Fay Mills has announced that he finds it necessary to alter the program for his lecture courses at Maple hall. He will lecture this evening and Friday evening on "Concentration," as announced, and on Thursday evening he will deliver one lecture on "The Life and Message of Rabindranth Tagore." On the afternoons of Thursday and Friday, at 4 o'clock, he will speak on "The Practice and Results of Serenity." The lectures announced for next week will be postponed for the present and until further notice.

LATEST NEWS FROM RICHMOND

CATHOLIC BURIAL GROUND DEDICATED

Archbishop P. W. Riordan Is
Speaker at Consecration Ceremonies.

RICHMOND, Sept. 9.—Nearly 5000 persons from various sections of the east bay region gathered at San Pablo hill this morning to witness the consecration of the new St. Joseph cemetery of the Catholic church by Archbishop P. W. Riordan of the diocese of San Francisco.

The dedicatory services were performed by the archbishop, assisted by Rev. Joseph Portia of San Pablo, Rev. R. M. Griffin of St. Mark's church in this city, Collins. The address by the archbishop was explanatory of the doctrine of the Catholic church in regard to burial of the dead instead of cremation. He also outlined the plans which the church has for the improvement of the new burial place.

Musical numbers by the combined choirs of the local churches were an attractive feature of the day. The new cemetery consisted of forty-five acres, just back of the town of San Pablo. Five acres have already been improved with lawns and flowers, and the natural shrubbery of the site has been used to advantage in the decorative landscaping. The new cemetery will serve the Catholic churches of Richmond, Berkeley, Albany, San Pablo, Steeple, and Pinole.

COUNCIL TRANSACTS MUCH ROUTINE BUSINESS

RICHMOND, Sept. 9.—The session of the city council last night was productive of settling many minor matters of long standing.

A communication was received asking for a special permit for the Knights of Pythias festival, the two 12 year old street. They will be charged $5 per day during the carnival. Their request that the city should not be made a party to the expense of the festival was referred to the committee on public works. The committee on public works was referred to the committee on public works. The committee on public works was referred to the committee on public works.

Councilman Follett brought the attention of the council to the city ordinance respecting fire escapes and a discussion of the situation followed, in which Fire Chief Le Molne mentioned the need for more ladders and a net apparatus.

The bills were ordered paid and the council adjourned.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF MRS. SUTHERLAND

RICHMOND, Sept. 9.—The funeral services for Mrs. Clara Bell Sutherland, who passed away at the family residence 103 Summit place, were held this afternoon under the auspices of the Richmond Lodge of Masons of the World No. 50 of which the deceased was a prominent member.

Mrs. Sutherland was a resident of Richmond for more than eight years and had a wide circle of acquaintances in this city. She was a native of Durham, England, and was 58 years old. She came to America when a little girl. She leaves two sons, Harry and Orlando Sutherland in Whittier, Ind., a daughter, Mrs. J. F. Toner of this city; two brothers, Frank Bartlett of Hammond, Ind.; and Thomas Bartlett of Whittier, Ind.; two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Mettler of Point Richmond and Miss Millicent Bartlett of Whittier, Ind.

The services were conducted from the undertaking parlors of Bert Curry, The Rev. D. W. Calfee officiated. Interment was in Sunset View Cemetery.

ROBBER TRIO IN DARING WATER FRONT HOLDUPS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—A trio of robbers is believed to have been responsible for two daring hold-ups on the waterfront this morning. Roman Johnson of the steamer Star of India was walking along Pier 54 when he was suddenly surrounded by the gang, beaten down and robbed of $450. He suffered an abrasion of the lip and an injury to his hip and taken to the Central Emergency Hospital. The second victim was Antonio Kustad, a sailor on the steamer Sierra. He was attacked at Drumm street and the Embarcadero and lost a watch and $15.

BELIEVE MISSING SAN PABLO CHILDREN SAFE

RICHMOND, Sept. 9.—While the police authorities of all of the nearby cities have been requested to look for Donald Beale and Grant Whitely, the two 12 year old San Pablo lads who have been missing from their homes in the suburban town since Monday, the parents of the little fellows are of the opinion that both boys are alive and well and that they are simply the victims of wandering. It was feared for a time that the little fellows might have been lost in the big grass fire that swept over the San Pablo hills on Monday, burning over an area of over fifty miles square, but in a search of the entire district no remains of the boys were found. The description of the little fellows was given yesterday in the upper end of San Pablo valley about twelve miles from their homes.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS TO GIVE BIG CARNIVAL

RICHMOND, Sept. 9.—Plans are rapidly assuming shape for the Knights of Pythias Carnival, which will be held from September 22 to the evening of September 23.

The queen of the carnival will be chosen by voting. Many of the Richmond stores will give out tickets, and a ballot box will be placed in front of the Richmond water tower for the election of the lady of the day.

The candidates for the queenship will be announced the latter part of this week, according to plans of the committee to close.

The program following the luncheon especially interested the club members, as two of the three contributors were local musicians of unusual talent. Miss Roxana Wiche played the accompaniment for her very patriotic composition, "The Gem of the Nation's Crown, California," which was sung by Frederick G. Harrison Jr. Douglas Soule, the other pianist, played with genuine distinction several classical solos.

This program arranged by the chairman of music, Mrs. Mary F. Childs, was rendered: Piano Solos, Douglas Soule.

Songs, Mr. Frederick G. Harrison Jr. "Song of the Swallow," Mr. J. L. Leighton "From the Opera," "Tosca."

"The Gem of the Nation's Crown, California," accompanied by the composer, Miss Roxana Wiche.

In all the Oakland playgrounds, admission day was observed today with athletic and literary programs. Hundreds of boys and girls took part in the races and games, which formed the most enjoyable features of the holiday festivities. Special exercises were arranged for the holiday by the supervisors of the various recreation centers, who had spared no effort in making the celebration a success. Lands and lassies of all sizes and ages appeared in the contests and much skill was shown in the baseball, basketball and volleyball games, which created much enthusiasm in the playgrounds. There were many spectators on the grounds and the little girls displayed much skill in their team work.

Promptly at 5:30, the doors of the playgrounds were unbarred and the tots rushed into the grounds. Throughout the day the swins and playground apparatus were in use. The elder boys and girls assumed charge of their younger sisters and brothers and, arm-in-arm, they marched around the playgrounds. In many of the pleasure parks the program was withered. The members of the Alameda teams, headed by the boys' band and drum corps, serenaded the playground and marched into the assembly hall of the Alameda school. Arthur Arlett, president of the Public Welfare league, addressed the children.

IN MANY ACTIVITIES. The scenes in the playgrounds steadily changed and the diversity of activities held the attention of the youngsters, who revelled in the sports, which were planned for their amusement. Simultaneously with the children's diversions, the members of the Women's Club held high carnival and joined in the merriment of the day. They played a series of volleyball and basketball games, which attracted crowds. The games were cheered and their speed as well as their skill caused much favorable comment. In Bushrod park playground, a baseball game between the Bushrod boys and the all-stars was the opening event. It was followed by an "apparatus tag" by the Banquets and Midgates; the Juniors and Seniors. Gymnastic and tumbling exhibitions preceded the German ball contest for the Pikes. The races provoked much laughter. They were classified in groups. The first was a cracker race for the midgates and the intermediates, juniors and seniors. A three-legged race for all classes; third, obstacle race, race for juniors and seniors, and the final race was a relay race. This afternoon the Women's Outdoor Club of Bushrod park playground engaged in a volleyball game with their husbands. The women played a splendid game and wrested the honors from their husbands. The Bushrod park unlimited team exhibited their training in the rugby football game, which marked one of the first games of the season. The admission day exercises in Bushrod park playground will terminate tonight, when the Oakland Camper girls give an entertainment in the assembly hall of the Washington school. The supervisors of Bushrod park have invited the directors of the local playgrounds to their honor guests tonight. MANY WILL APPEAR. Among the children who will appear in the songs and dances are Marion Clare, Melba McNaught, Violet Young, Katherine Stoops, Dorothy Lilliston, Eloise Ewing, Hazel Geary, Marygrove Clara Ames, Wilhelmina White, Sigrid Miller, Beatrice Maroff, Olive Balmann, Doris Compton, Graham Brodie, Vivian Eaton, Emma Furrer and Albert Myers. The senior boys and girls of the Poplar street playground opened the festivities at that recreation park with a volleyball game, followed by German ball by the junior girls; punchball by the junior girls vs. the Thursday Club. In one corner of the playground the members of the Little Mothers' Club were entering the story games. In the Park Boulevard Club the Bluebirds Club matched their skill in German ball while the older girls found pleasure in a baseball game. The boys occupied the tennis courts during the morning hours. In the Melrose playground, the midgates and intermediates conducted a handball tournament, which was the first tournament ever held there. A tennis tournament was also among today's pastimes. In De Fremery park playground, the seniors engaged in a tennis tournament this morning; games and races were the afternoon attractions. At Mosswood park playground, a Victrola concert was given. Selections from the operas written by the music masters of the world constituted the program.

TO DEDICATE NEW BABIES' HOSPITAL

Building at Fifty-first and Dover Streets Will Be Formally Opened.

The Baby Hospital association of Alameda county will dedicate its new home next Wednesday afternoon, when Rev. Edward Parsons, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church of Berkeley, will deliver the dedicatory address. The public will inspect the building at Fifty-first and Dover streets, where the directors of the association will constitute the reception committee. Between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock, the building will be open to the public. Plans are nearly completed for the reception, which will mark the opening of that institution, which will be dedicated to charity. Already many of the leading philanthropists of Alameda county have contributed to the interior equipment of the hospital. Among the donors are Mrs. C. Clay, G. S. Arnold, Miss Armstrong, Miss Burt Brittain, Mrs. Edward Brock, Mr. C. Brougher, Francis Cutting, Mrs. Sturtevant Fish, Mrs. George W. Lane, Columbus E. Lewis, Mrs. A. M. Martineau, Robert McPherson, J. K. McLean, Mrs. C. W. Merrill, Dr. Marcia Patrick, Walter Powell, J. P. Van Loben Selts, Mrs. J. B. Ritter and Mrs. Mabel Wheeler. The board of managers of the association are Dr. Jessica Flexotto, honorary vice-president, Mrs. Duncan McPherson, president, Miss Mabel Weed, first vice-president, Miss Marion Ransom, second vice-president, Miss Edith Waterman, third vice-president, Mrs. W. A. Shockey, treasurer, Miss Myrtle Smith, assistant treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Douglas, secretary and Mrs. Frederick Magee, corresponding secretary. To serve three years on board of managers—Mrs. M. Friedlander, Mrs. H. R. Friedman, Mrs. Clifton Mason, Mrs. Dunham McDuffie, Miss Mary Van Orden, Mrs. E. I. Parsons, Mrs. W. A. Shockey, Mrs. W. B. Seabury, Miss Clara Maxwell Taft, Miss Mabel Weed. Lloyd, Miss Adeline Smith, Miss Myrtle Smith, Miss Edith Dunning, Miss Edith Waterman.

ATTEMPT ROBBERY OF BANKER'S HOME

Thieves Tear Screening From Door, but Fail to Gain Entrance.

George S. Meredith, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank, reported to the police that an attempt was made by burglars last night to break into his home, 341 Athol avenue. Mrs. Meredith found that the molding of the screen door at the rear of the house had been ripped away and the door opened by raising the hook catch. The burglars apparently abandoned the attempt to force an entrance before they had succeeded in unlocking the inner door. Two men were seen leaving the home of Mrs. E. Christensen, 2320 East Fourteenth street, Mrs. Christensen, when she returned from visiting a neighbor. She made a hasty search and found that they had stolen a purse containing $150. The police were notified, but failed to capture the thieves. A burglar forced the front door of the home of Mrs. Lillie Walker, 2409 San Pablo avenue, last night and stole clothing and $10 in coin. J. Hipe, 123 Eighth street, reported the theft of a diamond ring, and explained that a boy who used his telephone during the day might have stolen it. The police are investigating.

DINER IS ARRESTED.

Solomon Diner was arrested by the San Francisco police on the request of the Oakland authorities and brought to this city today by Inspectors Hodgkins and Duffon to face a charge of felony embezzlement. Diner is alleged to have misappropriated $50 entrusted to him by J. Lund, a furniture dealer of 3310 East Fourteenth street.

SUGGESTS LIBRARY SITE.

EDITOR: I have been thinking me through the medium of your paper to "butt in" on the question of a site for one of the $200 Carnegie library buildings. While the people of North Oakland are arguing and debating whether one of these buildings shall be built in the Santa Fe tract, Claremont or Rockridge, it seems to me that one of the most logical and beautiful sites in the whole city has so far been overlooked. I have in mind a site which we already own, a site which is really needed for no other purpose; a site admirably situated and in the midst of a densely populated portion of our city. We now have the main library on Thirteenth street, a branch on San Pablo in Emeryville, and on Telegraph in Alameda and another on Piedmont avenue, near Fortieth. These libraries form a circle or radiate round a section which is now without proper service. But which, can now, at an opportune moment, offer a site of adequate proportions and beautifully situated in a triangular piece of land just across Webster street from Mosswood park, at the juncture of Thirteenth and Webster streets. A building could be erected there facing or looking north up Webster street, with the tall trees round it, forming a most beautiful setting in a locality where it is badly needed. When they were remodeling the old Moss residence it was stated that we were to have a library there, but that is being used for other purposes. We can now, through your columns, appeal to the trustees and council with the help of Mr. Carnegie, to fulfill that promise on a more elaborate and grander scale. G. N. SIMMONS, 2845 Clark street.

EDITOR: I did not witness the marriage of H. D. Thompson to Cora I. Cole, August 21. At this announcement I was a great embarrassment. I wish it publicly announced that I was not a part to same. MISS HESTER THOMPSON, Oakland, September 8.

CHURCH ASSN. IN CLOSING MEETING

Rev. F. J. Van Horn Addresses Congregational Organization in East Oakland.

Rev. Francis J. Van Horn, pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city, addressed a large congregation of laymen and clergymen last evening at the closing meeting of the Bay Association of Congregational churches, held in the Pilgrim Congregational Church of East Oakland. The seventy-seventh meeting of the Bay Association of Congregational churches opened yesterday morning and remained in session throughout the day and evening. Rev. S. B. Patterson, pastor of the North Berkeley Congregational Church, chairman of the Bay Association, presided over the conference and he introduced Dr. Van Horn as the speaker of the evening. His theme was: "For the Love of the Game." He spoke in part as follows: "Life is serious enough and we do well to take it seriously, yet the man who fails to take it as a great, challenging game loses half the rest of living. "How as these autumn months begin what we call the winter campaign, we are planning. And all plans center round these questions: How to provide the means to finance all church work properly? How to win others to the church? How often should finance made a drugery, a canvass made with a down-cast, apologetic air? "The church's greatest business is winning men; increasing its membership, strengthening the forces. Can this also be a game? Why not? Jesus spoke of catching men, as would fishermen his followers, win to ensure new recruits for the kingdom of heaven. And evidently they did not think of it as a task, hard and disagreeable. With joy they went out, even in times of persecution and rejoicing always, as Paul says, they won the world."

In December the Bay Association will meet in the Mission Congregational Church of San Francisco. SPANISH WAR VETERAN IS BURIED BY COMRADES. The funeral of Claude D. Kent, veteran of the United Spanish War Veterans, was held yesterday afternoon at the California crematorium, where services were conducted by the officers of E. H. Kinnon, Camp of this city. The remains were buried in Mountain View Cemetery, where full military honors were paid to the departed by a detachment of sailors from the Torpedo Buena island naval training station. Claude D. Kent served in Company G, Eighth California Volunteers, in the Spanish-American war. The pallbearers were selected from the Kinnon camp as follows: C. F. Wessell, K. E. Beale, J. K. Roark, W. G. B. Erdman, C. C. Garfield, Bert H. Libby and J. W. Maxey.

PATROLMEN RAID GAMBLING HOUSES

Twenty-One Arrests Made in Night of Action by Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Captain of Police John Mooney, who since his advent as commander of the southern district has spread fear in the hearts of the gamblers and pool-room men, staged another set of raids early this morning. Twenty-one players and keepers were gathered in by Lieutenant Philip Fraher and his posse of officers. The first place visited was William Williams of 426 Stevenson street. The crowd was caught unawares, but many managed to get away. Williams and six visitors were taken into custody. At the resort of James Heegler, 501 Jessie street, the proprietor and four players were caught. The last raid was made on the rooms of Charles Shephard, 270 Sixth street. Here eight gamblers and Shephard were taken into custody. From all of the places cards chips and other paraphernalia were confiscated and booked as evidence.

OAKLAND BOYS' BAND TO SEEK FAIR PRIZES

The two bands of the Oakland Exposition Boys' Club are going up to Sacramento on Sunday to compete for prizes of $500 and $400 given by the State Fair. The first section of these bands will be under the leadership of Professor John Smith and the second section under his son, Charles D. Smith. The band, owing to its size, had to be divided into two sections and these are two separate and distinct bands now. A number of the parents are going to accompany the boys on the trip on the special train, leaving Sunday morning at 3 o'clock. There will be a parade down to the Sixteenth-street depot in the morning, and the boys will make a big showing when they arrive at the Capital City.

MISS RAMONA ALLEN, WHO WILL BE GUEST OF HONOR AT MISS WOODWARD'S TEA.

SOMEONE writing from Del Monte has said it is all very much like a glorified musical comedy—the gayety and pretty gowns, and the general air of light effervescence that society attains on a holiday. But principally the gown and lovely girls who wear them with so much more “class,” which is the musical comedy word for distinction, than one ever sees on the stage. There are morning scenes on the links, with the clash of many colors that might have been conceived by a manager in post-impressionist mood. Brilliant green and orange blazers and deep pink blouses, with the striking black and white of Mrs. Guy Taylor’s costume. She has worn white with a sleeveless coat of black and white silk and a broad-brimmed black sailor hat, quite in the cubist manner. Mrs. Walter Martin wears blue, a sort of Mediterranean blue she is fond of and affects most often. It is especially becoming to her English coloring and clear blue eyes, and Mrs. Martin is as faithful to blue as little Mrs. Vincent Whitney, who was a picture at the dance the other night in brilliant blue chiffon with a deep magenta rose at her girdle. Mrs. Malcolm Whitman was very stunning at the dance in Russian lace over white chiffon with a broad rose colored girdle. And Miss Leslie Miller, in white chiffon with gold rosebuds embroidered over tunic, had a lot of admiration. These belong to “hallroom scenes” that would inspire a producer. If the colors are not grouped and harmonized the effect is really more interestingly futuristic. As for plot, surely there are all the characters at Del Monte with romance and comedy for a dozen “shows.”

ARRIVES IN ENGLAND.

Mrs. Herbert Kittredge has received news from her son, Tracey Kittredge, an Oxford undergraduate, who was in Germany when war was declared. He succeeded in reaching The Hague, but could send no message to his relatives and only a few weeks ago secured passage on a steamer to England. He stated in his letter that he would remain in England and return to Oxford if the university opens this year.

MOTOR TRIP TO DEL MONTE.

Miss Phyllis Capwell is one of a jolly party enjoying a motor trip to Carmel and Del Monte. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Spencer Palmer of San Francisco are chaperoning the party that includes Miss Capwell, Miss Rita Brown, Miss Marian Lox, Lieutenant Charles Nelson, George Bush and George Smith. They will return Thursday after a five days’ outing.

FOR MISS ALLEN.

Miss Ramona Allen, the fiancée of Joseph Bray, will be guest of honor at a bridge party to be given on Saturday afternoon, September 26, by Miss Edith Woodward. Invitations will be sent out next week and it will be quite a large affair with several of Miss Woodward’s intimate friends assisting. The wedding of Miss Allen and Mr. Bray will not take place until after the holidays.

MISS VOSS ENTERTAINED.

Miss Olive Voss, whose wedding to Benjamin Hugh High will take place the last of September, is a much feted bride-elect. A number of informal luncheons and teas have been given for her, and a few evenings ago she was guest of honor at a dinner for fourteen guests given by Mrs. Arthur Delgie at her home in San Francisco.

EN ROUTE FROM NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Church and Miss Esther Church are en route from New York and will arrive Friday or Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Church went East two weeks ago to meet their daughter on her arrival from Europe, where she saw much of the war excitement on the continent.

TO GIVE CARD PARTY.

Miss Gladys Newbell will send out cards shortly for a large bridge party she is planning for the afternoon of October 3. About forty guests will be entertained at the Newbell residence in Twenty-fourth street.

LEAVE FOR THE EAST.

Mrs. Edith Adams and Miss Elizabeth Adams will leave tomorrow for the East, where Miss Adams will enter Miss Bennett’s school in New York. Mrs. Adams will spend several weeks in the metropolis, taking in the shops and theaters before returning to Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taylor with Miss Ruth and Miss Berenice Taylor are planning to go East in a few weeks for a stay of several months. Their home in Claremont will be closed in their absence.

INFORMAL DANCE.

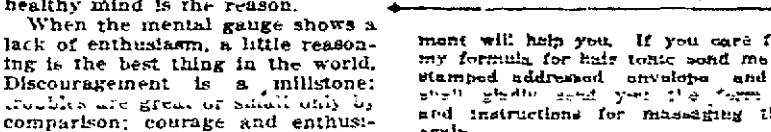

Miss Louise Wolfing gave an informal dance a few evenings ago at her home in Oakland where a score of guests were entertained. Mrs. M. E. Wolfing assisted her daughter, and among those present were Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Pitzer, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hoffman, Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Somers, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Bora, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Thom, Miss Beth Mahet, Dr. Vincent Brown, Miss Emma Brown and Dr. J. Franklin Smith.

A Mental Gauge of Life

(By Lillian Russell)

Copyright, 1914, by LILLIAN RUSSELL.

ALL the “blues,” depression, ennui, or any other name to please—it is the wasting of life, nevertheless. I refer to that listless, hopeless, empty mental affliction which sometimes takes hold of us and does more harm than is at first inferred. The true scientist in the school of doctors today will admit that the emotions—violent ones—will destroy more brain cells in a short space of time than actual bodily disease. They will also admit that the “blues” will cause an actual drain of life itself, and of course it is worth while fighting against this miserable condition. It is possible to keep a mental gauge on life by controlling the various forces that move within you, because mind is the motor power. A lack of interest is the first important symptom that something is wrong—something serious, too, for when appreciation and enthusiasm wane, life is on the ebb tide. When one is vigorous, enthusiastic, entering into the affairs of life with good spirit, the mental gauge will show strength, good health and happiness. However, when the mind’s survey of condition shows listlessness, disinterest, lack of enthusiasm, then something is wrong. Sometimes there is a physical cause for such condition which is readily recognized and quickly remedied, but nearly always an unhealthy mind is the reason. When the mental gauge shows a lack of enthusiasm, a little reasoning is the best thing in the world. Discouragement is a millstone; trouble is great or small only by comparison; courage and enthusiasm are the bubbling of life—they are force, action, work, play—happiness and success. Invigorate your mentality by change of some sort and you will drive away depression; melancholy thrives upon inaction. So make it a habit to become enthusiastic in all that you do. Enthusiasm is the life and energy that is within you. Keep a mental gauge upon it, and when it wanes reason with yourself to make it return. Remember: That an ailment of the mind is more dangerous, many times over, than a physical disorder. Yet it is more easily corrected.

LILLIAN RUSSELL.

ment will help you. If you care for my formula for hair tonic send me a stamped addressed envelope and I will gladly send you the formula and instructions for massaging the scalp. Mrs. G. Y. Before you take a mountain trip it is well to make some preparation for it. You can easily do so by walking up and down an inclined board which may be arranged without any trouble, or you can walk up and down stairs or low hills. It is better to begin gradually. Do not make sudden changes from a slow to a rapid walk. The best time of day for a mountain climb is in the morning, in walking up a hill the feet should be turned out, while in walking down they should be parallel or turned slightly inward. Climbing develops the thighs and calves. It is due for obesity. The lungs, too, do harder work and take in more oxygen. Be sure your shoes are comfortable and have thick soles and low, broad heels. A rather short skirt is also necessary, and one that is wide enough to take a good sized step without being hampered by a tight skirt.

Answers to Queries.

E. J. E.: I am sorry, but I cannot give you the name of a scalp specialist. I would advise you to massage your scalp and use a good hair tonic. Your scalp has probably become tight. This will cause the hair to fall. Scalp massage will loosen the scalp and make it more pliable, and the hair more nourishment and promote a growth of hair. Massage your scalp each night for about fifteen minutes, using a good hair tonic. I am sure this will improve your hair and make it more full of life and stop it from falling. After you have given this treatment a fair trial, and still your hair falls, consult a scalp specialist. I am sure, however, that this treatment will help you. If you care for my formula for hair tonic send me a stamped addressed envelope and I will gladly send you the formula and instructions for massaging the scalp.

Next come non-fraternity men, who avoid athletics of the athletes, the heroes of the under path rank foremost in the class room. The average scholarship of the women is 82.6 per cent, and that of the men, 74 per cent. The athletes, as a whole, rate 70.2 in scholarship.

WOMEN’S POLICE COURT IS OPENED IN SOUTH

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 8.—The first local women’s police court was opened here yesterday by Justice Thomas P. White. Men are barred from the courtroom except as they may appear as witnesses, or their attendance be necessary in their legal capacities. A woman bailiff has been provided, and women active in social service work are called upon to attend so that the women prisoners on trial may have the sympathetic advice and protection of their sex.

Justice White opened the court with an address on the possibilities of such a court in its effect on the submerged status of women. He expressed the hope that it might soon have a woman justice to preside over it and women to fill all its minor offices. Many social workers, professional women and the women police officers of the city attended the opening session. The first case tried was that of Emma Lucas, to whom Justice White gave a suspended sentence as an example of the encouraging he purposed practicing in the court.

WIFE OF FORMER “HOPE” CRUEL, SAYS SPOUSE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Albert H. Kaufmann, one time “white hope,” filed suit for divorce yesterday against Annette Kaufmann, chorus girl at the Galaxy, charging extreme cruelty. Kaufmann says his wife embraced a theatrical career against his wishes and since has spent much of her time in cafes and beach resorts, with other men and chorus girls, thereby inflicting great mental cruelty upon him. The Kaufmanns were married in Pittsburgh, Pa., in February, 1911.

FIRST WIFE ACCUSED IN DIVORCE SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Naming Mrs. Claire Dougherty, his husband’s former wife, Mrs. Ethel Dougherty of 214 Cole street yesterday filed suit for divorce against Fred Dougherty, a commission agent. Mrs. Dougherty number two lays several charges at her husband’s door, such as intemperance, extreme cruelty and refusing to escort her to places of amusement. The first wife, who is a milliner, says that the second wife knew of the meetings she had with her former husband, but condoned them.

WOMEN THREATENED, HENRY SAYS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Threats to kill Mrs. Anna Grossman and her fiancée, S. H. May, both residents of San Francisco, were made, they stated today, if they testified in Ukiah last Saturday against George A. Fox at his preliminary hearing on the charge of larceny over $5000 worth of jewels from Mrs. Grossman.

May reported to the local police department that about 9:30 o’clock last Thursday evening some one called him up over the telephone in his room at the Hotel St. Francis and in obscene and obscene terms stated that he and Mrs. Grossman carried out their plans to go to Ukiah the following day May would be murdered and Mrs. Grossman would be “put out of the way.” The unknown described the movements of May and Mrs. Grossman minutely and said he would “get” the latter in her rooms at the Maux Hotel.

May says the man at the other end of the telephone said he would come to the St. Francis immediately. House Detective Frank Blake was consulted, and with May kept a careful watch in the lobby until about midnight on Thursday, but no one appeared to carry out the threat.

When Mrs. Grossman and her fiancée went to Ukiah last Friday they were carefully guarded by private detectives, who were also on guard against any attempt to injure them during their stay in Mendocino county, and especially during the hearing of Fox on Saturday.

AMERICAN WOMAN HURT BY BAYONET

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The first wounded American woman to reach New York from Europe since the beginning of the war arrived here yesterday aboard the steamer Saxonia from Liverpool. She is Mrs. C. J. Devlin of Kansas City, and her husband is a bayonet thrust in the leg, inflicted during an excited Dutch soldier at the Hook of Holland. The Saxonia brought 773 passengers, nearly all Americans. Many of them suffered cruel hardships in Europe.

MISS MABEL BOARDMAN, “THE RED CROSS WOMAN SKIPPER,” WHO IS TO SAIL FOR EUROPE TO AID WAR SUFFERERS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Miss Mabel Boardman, “The Red Cross Skipper,” is almost ready for her voyage. Directing the old ship “Hamburg,” which she has chartered for her crew, she is to cross the Atlantic to the seat of war, bearing relief to sufferers. Fully loaded and provisioned, the ship is the first “Red Cross” ship in the war and opens up a new line of work. Miss Boardman is ready to aid in naval cases if possible, or can transport supplies to sufferers on shores of different nations.

The woman “skipper,” who is to captain the ship, has appealed for a large fund with which to operate her venture.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT ENTRIES OPENED

Four Classes to Compete in Inter-Playground Contest.

Tryouts for the tennis interclass contests of the Oakland high school have commenced in the Mosswood Park playground court where the athletes are preparing to enter the finals for singles and doubles. The tennis tournament will be one of the main events of the fall season.

Entries are daily being recorded by the supervisors of the Oakland playgrounds for the inter-playground tennis tournament. The date has not as yet been set. The tournament is open to local boys. In the composition the leads will be classified as follows: Midgets—Under 5 feet in height and under 13 years of age. Intermediates—Under 5 feet 6 inches and under 15 years of age. Seniors—Unlimited. The tournament will be played in singles and doubles.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE

About 50 boys of the Oakland Young Men’s Christian Association will attend the annual boys’ conference to be held September 25, 26 and 27 in Sacramento. Many topics of vital interest to the boys will be discussed and a number of Oakland boys will take part in the proceedings of the sessions.

The athletic schedule for the boys of the local association for the fall season has not as yet been completed. A series of indoor games have been planned and many contests will be conducted throughout the year. Indoor basketball was very popular last spring at the association, where the youthful athletes engaged in many exciting games.

MOSSWOOD BLUEBIRDS INITIATE NEW MEMBERS

At a party given Monday in Mosswood Park playground by the Bluebirds’ Club of Park boulevard playground, a number of girls were initiated into the society, which is headed by Lamorna Taylor, president, and Catherine Robinson, secretary. The girls who were welcomed into the “Bluebirds” Club were Vera Peach, Linda Carlston and Helen Kennedy.

The Acorn campfire girls of the Park boulevard playground held its regular monthly council recently, when they served luncheon. The girls of the Bluebirds’ Society will join the campfire girls in a bazaar for which plans are now under way. The affair will be held in October.

ALAMEDA GIRL GIVES PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

In honor of her sixteenth birthday, Martha Winslow of 1432 Benton street, Alameda, entertained a number of her friends at an anniversary celebration which was given last Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents in the Encinal city. During the afternoon games were played and prizes were awarded to Marion Bauer, Martha Cook, Isabel Robbins, Marie Rosenberg and Anita Krieger. Marie Rosenberg received the coin in her glove of birthday cake, while Mary Cook found the thimble.

Among those who were present were Geraldine Worford, Larry Cook, Martha Cook, Isabel Robbins, Anita Krieger, Thelma Jones, Annabel Gardner, Claire Brown, Sibyl Fenton, Louise Simpson, William Simpson, Marion Raugh, Marie Rosenberg, Laura Peterson, Hunter Kane, Cecilia Powers, Edward Letter, George Winslow and Martha Winslow.

Gives Exercises and Diet to Prevent Constipation and Stomach Fat.
EXERCISES FOR ABDOMINAL MUSCLES AND CONSTIPATION—Part II.
The four following exercises are especially designed to prevent and cure constipation. They will also strengthen the abdominal muscles and prevent accumulation of fat.
Ex. 1.—Pulse the body of the feet arms on hips with thumbs curved back. Turn the body from left to right as far as possible moving the head with the body. While doing this bend the entire abdomen with the hands, not localizing the pressure in any one spot, but covering the entire abdomen. This movement particularly stimulates the action of the lower intestine.
Ex. 2.—Take the same pulse, weight on ball of foot and hands on hips. Bend the body forward from the waist until it is at right angle with the legs and, while in this position, knead the entire abdomen with the two hands. Now bend the body backwards, bracing it by placing the hands again on the hips, and keeping the head on a line with the spine. Return to erect position and repeat the movement from ten to twenty times.
It may be advisable to rest a few minutes after this exercise and before beginning the following.
Ex. 3.—Take original pulse; bend the body to the right side until the hand touches the knee, placing the left hand on the back of the right leg. Reverse and repeat taking care that in bending the body it keeps always in the vertical plane. Repeat twenty times, increasing when ease and strength are gained.
Ex. 4.—For the last exercise in this series lie flat on the floor with the hands under the hips. Without bending the knees, raise the legs to a right angle with the body, return and repeat from twenty to thirty times. This is excellent to reduce the size of the waist and any undue accumulation of fat over the stomach.
Influence of Diet.
The cellulose that makes up such a large part of fruit and vegetables is supposed to exercise a wholesome and stimulating effect on the intestinal muscles, so that food is therefore to be recommended to those suffering from lack of elimination. Bread made from whole wheat or bran should be eaten in place of that made of white flour, and liquids, especially water, should be drunk freely between meals.
Remember that there is no one diet suitable for all cases of this trouble and one must in a measure seek and find that which the system craves for.

NATIVE SONS OF STATE GATHER IN VALLEJO

'FORGIVE' HER, LAST, SAD PRAYER

Mrs. Ellen Pucci Sends Message to Husband Before Passing Away.

"I hope that George will forgive me for any wrong I have done him, or any sorrow I have caused. I did not mean to. I want him to come to my funeral as a sign that he has forgiven me."

This message from Mrs. Ellen Pucci, delivered to her sister, Miss Marie Hayes, just before Mrs. Pucci died at Fabiola hospital last night, will be sent to Pucci when his whereabouts is learned. Mrs. Pucci died from a gunshot wound in the stomach accidentally inflicted by Robert Love, a well-known hotel man of Alameda, with whom she was on an automobile camping trip to Mr. Diablo over the holidays. Love raced back to Oakland with the injured woman and made every effort to save her life. The physicians here, but to no avail, however, and death came at 9 o'clock last night. Before uttering the message to her husband, Mrs. Pucci declared that the shooting had been entirely accidental, thus exonerating Love.

DOUBLE LIFE BARED.
The little automobile camping trip which ended in tragedy brought to light complications in the life of the Alameda hotel owner which proved a surprise to his friends. Love left his wife and family at Alameda Saturday to go on a hunting trip. He appeared in Oakland, as he is alleged to have appeared several times before, in the role of Pucci, husband of the young woman whose body is now lying at the morgue, awaiting inquest by the coroner's jury. Friends of Mrs. Pucci in Oakland had no doubt that Love was her husband, and were impressed by his devotion to his young wife.

"He deceived me," declared a friend of the woman, who learned with amazement the real state of affairs following the tragedy. "Bob is distracted over the death of Ellen."

"People will think harshly of them," said Ellen, who was a child. She had been married to Pucci when she was only 15, and never realized the responsibilities of married life. And then, she loved Bob, and he was so gentle and kind with her. She was a child at heart, and hardly realized the difference between right and wrong. I am more than sorry for Mrs. Love, though. This will be hard on her."

PROSTRATED WITH GRIEF.
Miss Hayes, sister of the dead woman, is prostrated with grief at the little flat occupied by the two sisters at 2169 Telegraph avenue. She is under the care of a physician, and so great has been her distress that it has been necessary to administer drugs to give her sleep. Miss Hayes was one of the camping party, and repeats over and over again that she is responsible for the accident. The mother of the two girls arrived today from Fallon, Nev., and is at the bedside of her daughter.

A peculiar circumstance in the affair is a dream which Mrs. Pucci told to her friends a week ago. She came in to breakfast laughing.

"I dreamed Bob shot me," she said. "I wonder what that means. It was just as vivid as reality."

There was a dream book on the shelf, and for several hours that day the young woman studied the book to learn the significance of her strange dream.

"Aren't you afraid something will happen?" she was asked.

"No, I know Bob will be careful," Mrs. Pucci answered. "I couldn't be afraid of him. The dream must mean something, but I don't know what."

She laughed at the forebodings of her friends.

Church Plans Memorial to President's Wife

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Rev. Homer McMillan of Alameda, secretary of the executive committee of the home mission board of the Presbyterian church, South, said before President Wilson today a plan for a memorial to Mrs. Wilson in the form of a fund for the education of mountain children of the South, a work in which Mrs. Wilson was deeply interested. The president interposed no objection.

INCOME TAX INCREASE PLANNED

Democratic Committee Only Awaits to Shape New Measure.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Democratic members of the House Ways and Means committee who are drafting the war revenue bill, having tentatively agreed upon an increase of the income tax, it now only remains to whip the measure into shape. Chairman Underwood hopes to have the bill ready for presentation to the House the latter part of the week.

The committee tentatively decided upon an income tax increase of one-half of 1 per cent and a reduction of the minimum exemption from $3,000 to $2,000 and the maximum exemption from $4,000 to $3,000. Under this proposal it is expected that at least $45,000,000 of the $100,000,000 required to meet the estimated deficit due to falling off in customs receipts will be raised.

It also was agreed to fix an increased tax on beer and malt liquors at 50 cents a barrel. That would bring in $35,000,000. The committee decided upon an extra levy of 20 cents a gallon on domestic wines, bringing $10,000,000. Proposals to levy an additional tax of 25 cents and 15 cents a gallon on distilled spirits were defeated, but it was decided to tax rectified spirits 2 cents a gallon, bringing in $2,000,000. The committee is understood to have agreed tentatively on a 2 per cent tax on railroad freight in lieu of a tax on railroad tickets. Tobacco products, automobiles, gasoline, amusement tickets, magazines and numerous other articles and commodities will not be taxed. That was made unnecessary because of the increased income tax.

WILSON OPPOSES INCOME TAX RAISE

Additional Revenue Would Not Be Realized in Time Holds President.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—President Wilson opposes an increase in the income tax as part of the program for raising additional revenue for the Government.

House Leader Underwood, Chairman Simmons of the Senate Finance Committee and Chairman Fitzgerald of the House Appropriations Committee conferred with the President today and were told that in his opinion an increased income tax would not be suitable in the emergency, because no returns would be realized until next year.

"We will have to start all over again," said Mr. Underwood when asked about the objections of the President to revision of the income tax.

Among the things which now will be considered for taxation are freight bills, gasoline, automobiles, soft drinks, proprietary preparations, telegrams and checks, amusement tickets, cosmetics and some forms of tobacco preparations, such as cigarettes on which the present revenue may be increased. In view of the executive opposition to an income tax increase it may be necessary to reconsider the decision not to increase the tax on distilled spirits. Mr. Underwood is still in favor of a tax on railroad tickets.

CANNON ASKS NOMINATION TO HOUSE

Former Speaker Has Hard Battle Against Doctor for Choice.

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 9.—Joseph G. Cannon, former speaker of the national House of Representatives today is making the fight of his life for the Republican nomination for Congress from the Eighteenth Illinois district. He is opposed by Dr. Elmer B. Cooley, a wealthy physician, also of Danville.

ILLINOIS WOMEN

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Interest in the Illinois primary today centered in the contest between Roger C. Sullivan of Chicago and L. R. Stricker of Lincoln, for the Democratic nomination for United States senator. Reports from nine congressional districts, principally in the north section of the state, favored Sullivan. The weather was generally fair and the rural vote was light.

Few women in the down-state districts voted, though there was a fair representation of the newly enfranchised voters in Chicago.

COLOPADO PETUNPS WANTING.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 9.—A light vote was cast yesterday in the state wide primary election to nominate party candidates for United States senator, congressmen and complete state and county tickets. This practically is the only definite information received this morning.

WASHINGTON FIGHT HEAVY.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 9.—Scattering returns from the state primary election today indicate the nomination of Ole Hanson, Progressive for United States Senator. United States Senator Wesley L. Jones received the Republican nomination unopposed. There were five Democratic candidates for senator and probably none has received the 10 per cent of first choice votes required to give the nomination so that several choice votes must be counted.

Alameda Amusement Resorts Thronged By Holiday Crowd

ALAMEDA, Sept. 9.—Alamedans closed home and shop today and went holidaying. The banks, post-office and public offices were closed, as well as most of the business houses.

Alameda parlor and Halcyon parlor, Native Sons, went to Vallejo to participate in the Admission Day festivities.

Several hundred joined the excursion of the Alameda lodge of Elks to Grand Canyon park, near Richmond. Five extra cars conveyed the merry-makers to the park, leaving the local clubhouse at 9 o'clock this morning. The day was spent with athletic contests and games, feasting and dancing.

The Aeolian Yacht Club members are still on their cruise and are enjoying a big time visiting various parts of the bay.

There are no special observances of Admission Day in Alameda, but the local parks and beaches were crowded to capacity, the excellent weather bringing many visitors from all the cities about the bay.

The tennis championships tournament at the Boulevard courts in Lincoln park, served to bring out a large number of spectators.

William W. Black getting a good vote everywhere.

The organized attack upon Supreme Justices Chadwick, Crow and Goss on account of decisions they had rendered resulted in a heavy vote for their opponents and it is not certain that all three judges have been renominated. Chadwick is getting more votes than his associates on the bench.

In the first congressional district, Congressman William E. Humphrey, Republican, was renominated. William Hickman Moore received the Democratic nomination. James W. Buman, Progressive candidate at large, is running behind August C. Griffiths in the First District for Congress.

93 RUNNERS WIN SILVER BARS

The Race Is Perfectly Handled, and the Conditions Are Ideal.

Running strong, with head erect and a smile on his features, Oliver Millard, the Olympic Club crack distance runner, won the second annual TRIBUNE Modified Marathon this morning, covering the six and one-quarter mile course around Lake Merritt in the fast time of 33 min. 25.1 sec. Next to Millard and only half a minute behind came Bobby Vought, also of the Winged O. Vought's official time was 33 minutes 57.3 seconds.

Thus was the prediction of experts fulfilled that the great race would rest between Millard and Vought, though there was an evenly divided opinion as to who would win, and Vought was, if anything, the favorite.

The third diamond medal fell to E. V. Stout, running unattached. The remaining twelve medal winners were Clair Lloyd, unattached; H. L. Morton, unattached (last year's winner); C. Fuqua of Cogswell High School; C. Ashworth, unattached; L. McNeil of the San Jose Y. M. C. A.; H. Ludwig of the Caledonian Club; W. Spanton of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A.; George Branner of Stanford University; Irving Johnson of the Oakland Y. M. C. A.; W. O. Johnson of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A.; Basil Spurr of the Olympic Club, and H. S. Abinanti of the Olympic Club.

The race was one of the most striking successes in Pacific Coast athletic history. Weather conditions were ideal, perfect order was preserved by the police, no accidents of any kind occurred, and ninety-three runners finished within a time limit of one hour out of 153 who started.

GREAT CROWD ON HAND.
An enormous crowd gathered at the start and finish and lined the course around the lake, cheering the runners as they sped past. The race, scheduled for 10 o'clock was started practically on time by Official Starter W. L. Seawright.

The runners dressed at the capacity quarters of the Oakland Wheelmen's Club, 34 Piedmont pavilion, where they found every convenience awaiting them. Otto Herker clerk of the course had an efficient corps of assistants to handle all the preliminary details and deserves great credit for the facility with which every runner was supplied with his number, identified and given the proper credentials. Examining physicians certified to the physical condition of all entrants.

Herbert Hauser, secretary of the P. A. A. and chairman of THE TRIBUNE race, after the official release of the day and in covered the course in the advance of the runners.

AUTO STRUCK BY EXPRESS TRAIN

Japanese Driver Almost Meets Death in Machine Stalled on Tracks.

HAYWARD, Sept. 9.—With the shriek of the whistle of an onrushing Western Pacific limited train, warning him clear, H. Morita, a Japanese truck driver, almost met death when the train crashed into his stalled auto truck at Ashtand last night. When the huge mogul engine was almost on him Morita, working desperately to start the engine of the truck jumped clear. The two ton truck was carried along for sixty or seventy feet by the express engine, the front wheels of which were dented. Passengers in the train were hardly aware of the accident, experiencing only a slight jolt as the train ran into the truck.

The engineer of the limited which left Oakland at 8:10 last night saw the truck approach the tracks and sounded his whistle. The engine of the truck went dead in the middle of the track.

The Japanese driver tried to get his machine off the track but the engine refused to work and he had just time to jump out of the way of the five feet train brakes were crowded on but not in time to avert a collision. The auto truck was completely wrecked.

After a short delay the overland continued on its journey. The auto truck was owned by Yanto & Company of Oakland, a Japanese merchandise firm.

CLUBWOMAN MAY BE WAR VICTIM

Her Friends Fear She Was Passenger on Ship Wrecked by Mine.

That Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook, president of the Home Club, may have taken passage on the ill-fated steamer Runo, which was destroyed by a mine in the North Sea, is feared by her friends, following news yesterday in a letter received by friends at the Hotel Oakland that she had planned to sail from Norway to London at about the time this ship left. Friends have cabled London in an effort to locate her.

Mrs. Easterbrook wrote that she planned to sail for London, and then to avail an opportunity for passage on a vessel for America. The news came in a letter from her yesterday. Today her friends, checking up the times of the mailing of the letter and sailing of ships, declared that she may have taken the Runo which sailed on August 2, just after her letter was dated. There were 700 passengers saved from the Runo, and 200 went down.

Railroads Ask for Sympathy of Public

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—President Wilson was asked today by a committee of railroad executives to address an appeal to the country that the people take a more sympathetic attitude toward the railroads. The committee did not ask the President to move for any specific relief, but told him he could do much to remove antagonism, which, they said, had grown up toward the railroads as a result of such agitation.

The President was told that because of the European war and an antagonistic attitude of the people toward the railroads great difficulty was being experienced in meeting obligations.

Unveil Tablet on Site Star Spangled Banner

BALTIMORE, Sept. 9.—In connection with the Star-Spangled Banner centennial celebration a tablet was unveiled today on the house at Pratt and Albemarle streets, where the original Star-Spangled Banner was made by Mrs. Mary Young Pickers-gill.

PARLORS ARE GIVEN GLAD WELCOME TO CITY

Impressive Ceremonies Mark Admission Day Celebration by Order.

VALLEJO, Sept. 9.—The Native Sons of the Golden West celebrated their state anniversary here today, when Vallejo entertained at least 25,000 visitors. A monster parade, five miles in length was held this morning, led by Grand Marshal Joseph Clavo. Many beautiful floats were in the line of march, and Oakland Parlor made one of the best showings. The affair was and tonight was a celebration of the admission of the state to the Union. This afternoon aquatic sports helped to entertain many of the guests, and Miss Nell Schmidt of Alameda swam across to Mare Island straits and was presented with a silver cup by the Native Sons' executive committee.

Great crowds today celebrated in Oakland, the birthday of California. Lakeside Park, the playgrounds and the theaters shared in the festivities, besides the great crowd of Native Sons who went to Vallejo for the official celebration of the order there.

The big event of this morning was THE TRIBUNE Modified Marathon. Lakeside Park was packed, and the boulevards over which the runners were routed were lined with spectators. Gav pennants of the schools and clubs represented in the affair lent dashes of color along the way, and automobile clubs, and motor cars, following the runners, popped like gaudy guns.

This afternoon saw the big concert at Lakeside Park, when California airs were played to a great throng. The ideal day added to the scene and enjoyment of the occasion, and drew greater crowds to Oakland's principal playground than are usually seen, even on the most important holidays. In the meantime the tennis courts were packed, and a new but a great stream of happy humanity passed in and out among the trees throughout the entire day.

The playgrounds of Oakland were busy too. Here the younger generation celebrated the Games, athletic contests and other attractions throughout the day occupied the time of the youngsters. Tonight dancing in the playground clubhouses will end their Admission day revels. An elaborate program, planned in every playground, was run off without a hitch.

SAN LEANDRO QUIET

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 9.—The trek of citizens to Vallejo accounted for a unusually quiet holiday here. Many left with the early morning trains to witness the celebration. Others who preferred to make it a rest day stayed at home or went picnicking.

VALLEJO, Sept. 9.—Amid gay streamers of bunting that line the streets, and under a clear and cloudless sky as ever California has boasted the Golden State many merry at her birthday celebration in Vallejo today. Native Sons and Daughters from all parts of California gathered for the big celebration, one of the features of which was this morning's great parade, in which the glory that is California was vividly depicted. Six thousand visiting Native Sons thronged in Vallejo today, and the celebration of the city. The parade, which began informally on Monday, has grand climaxed today in the parade, the athletic exercises and the other formal affairs that will close tonight with the parade of the "Horribles." A big display of fireworks will also be seen tonight. The Mare Island officers having ordered naval vessels to aid in this work.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, orator of the day, addressed the great crowd at the literary exercises in the afternoon.

New City Hall Rotunda Echo Is Perfect Babel of Voices

"I tell you that's not so," heartily declared a taxpayer on leaving the council chamber in the city hall. "So?" came a query in response. "Did you speak?" the taxpayer asked of his companion, suspiciously. "Speak?" came the response, and two seconds later a quiet murmur: "Speak?"

It was the first discovery of a new entity, the City Hall rotunda echo. Since then the rotunda echo has become exceedingly popular.

The rotunda, with its majestic staircase and great dome, is reached from the Washington street, or the main entrance to the hall. But the echo has to be sought carefully.

But once found, Mrs. Rotunda Echo has proved very talkative. She has been known to repeat a word eight times in ten seconds. The city hall janitor was badly frightened one night by hearing his whistle continued, re-echoed, until it became a long wail of anguish away up in the dome of the rotunda.

The echo is better at certain points than at others and several distinct responses may be heard from a certain flagstone at the foot of the staircase.

The suggestion was made that a noted singer should be asked to sing for an hour in the rotunda and the attaches at the city hall would have music for a week.

The echo has proved peculiarly unpleasant to the stenographers in the building, however, as Mrs. Echo refuses to permit any of them to have the last word.

SAY FIELDER JONES IS AFTER MINORS FOR FEDERALS VALLEJO SPORTSMEN ARE JUBILANT OVER WIN OF CHARLEY GRANDE

VALLEJO, Sept. 9. — Vallejo sportsmen ceased to heavily last night on the second decision won by Sailor Grand over Tom McMahon. Referee Jim Griffin's decision was thoroughly justified.

The third, fourth, fifth, tenth, sixteenth and seventeenth rounds were McLahon's, while Grande had the better of the seventh, eighth, eleventh, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth and twentieth.

The thirteenth was so decidedly in favor of the Sallor that it looked as if

McMahon was done for, but he came back in surprising style in the sixteenth and smashed the sailor's face with so many left and right swings that Grande was holding on to the bell and appeared to be close to his finish.

But Grande came up fresh for the next round and McMahon slowed up. Grande came on to a whirling finish that left no doubt as to the way the verdict would go.

Burns tells some interesting war yarns. The ship he came across on, the Marama, sailed out of Suva, in the Fiji islands, one night with every light out and routed 2000 miles off her course to Gouak, a German cruiser that was in that vicinity. Venue played listless ball behind Roy Hitt yesterday afternoon and the Wolves grabbed another game on the Oakland grounds, making three straight here. Since assuming the name of the Mission, Wolverton's team has won every game it has played in Oakland. Southpaw Stanley, though wild, was effective in the pinches. The score:

WATERLOO, Ia., Sept. 9.—Hens were drunk! Sure, and the spectacle was checked for by good residents of Waterloo.

Mrs. J. W. Chapman, residing on 8 Indiana street, in making an inspection of her canned fruit, discovered that the apples were not only spoiled and she said apples that were chickens. Visiting the coop again an hour or two later, she was shocked to find three old hens and probably the same three young ones, all of them drunk and several of them sick from the effects of the liquor. A younger brood trying to navigate a very uncertain and decidedly unsteady gait.

It is said that several of the young ones were apparently trying to get on and on their heads and turn back on their tails for the entertainment of the neighbors. They were clustered in the corner of the pen.

By the following morning the poultry

HAD recovered.

ADMINISTRATION WINS.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 9.—Returns from yesterday's state-wide primary indicate that all of the candidates for legislative office holders have been renominated. Governor George Hunt defeated Dr. Hughes by about 100 votes. Senator Marcus A. Smith defeated Mr. M. G. by about 100 votes. Balloting in the Republics was light. A majority of the vote in the contest in the November general election will be: Governor—Hunt, by about 100 votes, opposed by Ralph Cameron, Republican; and George W. Young, Progressive.

For senator—Smith, opposed by J. H. Umbrell, Republican, and J. B. Nelson, Progressive.

marble, etc., of the building is particularly undesirable.

"In the use of front doors do not give a favorable appearance and its forbearance is especially requested. The only place for smoking in Boat Hall is in the basement.

"It is a mark of respect to take one's hat off on entering the building.

"In the use of the library, it is necessary to the work of the students there that they are not disturbed by talk, etc. Students using books from the shelves are requested to return the same to their proper places immediately.

"The marking of books in any way is forbidden. Underlining and checking is of no value to the user and destroys their value to those who use the books for future reference.

"Telephone and ink for the use of the students will be found in room 5 of the basement.

"Books should never be taken from the reading rooms without the permission of the Librarian.

"The past observance of such a spirit, as is requested in these suggestions, has been one of the chief reasons of the Institution being glad to welcome visitors at any time."

NATIONAL GOVERNMENT IMPROVES COUNTRY LIFE

Development of Parcel Post Means Solution of the Cityward Drift.

The most potent single force employed by the United States Government in its long campaign for the betterment of country life is unquestionably the Parcel Post.

Every economist and social workers have bewailed the drift of the young generation from the farms to the cities. The deadly monotony of country life and the lack of adequate recreation and entertainment have driven the young people to the cities.

To combat this movement has been the object of many committee investigations and many long volumes on social welfare. The strength of England lay in her homogeneity and the back bone of the nation was the farmer. In Italy, on the small Italian farms, hence the vital importance of not merely preserving but developing the rural community.

The Parcel Post meets every requirement of an instrument in this service. It insures the future comforts and joys by the purchase of the necessities of life placed upon the latter. It affords particularly in the newly developed field of the phonograph and the record library the highest form of entertainment and instruction enjoyed in art and education. It brings to the farmer's door his home. It brings to the farmer's wife not merely the city shops but also the bargain counters which under older merchandising methods were closed to all but the city dweller.

The small country merchant. It relieves him of the necessity of carrying a large amount of stock for which he has a very inconstant call but which he must keep on hand as an accommodation to his customers, and he cannot obtain such merchandise elsewhere. Relieved of this burden he can employ the capital so released in developing the service and stock quality of his regular business and, by increasing his turnover he will actually find his annual income increased. This is established by the service of the Parcel Post.

THE TRIBUNE for the convenience of its county readers has inaugurated a directory of Oakland merchants who are establishing Parcel Post departments. In this directory which will be in the nature of a directory of the business of the county, descriptions of goods and price lists will be published every Monday afternoon. It will bring every outlying farmhouse within a radius of one hundred miles into the shopping district of Oakland, relieving the busy fruit season, relieving the merchant his wife of the necessity of taking valuable time into the city for necessary shopping and it will conserve to the mercantile community of Oakland that rich and populous farming region which is presently untouched in the sphere of their merchandising interests.

At 11:30 a. m. Sept. 8, Dr. and Mrs. William Hieronymy and Dr. and Mrs. William Jacobs have returned from a motor trip to Lake Tahoe. They left early this morning, going to the lake by way of Sacramento, Auburn and Truckee, to Tahoe Tavern, Tallac and home by way of Carson City.

Dr. Hieronymy was at the wheel. He reports the roads in good condition, especially the highway from Escalante to Folsom.

NEW YORK SHIVERS ON COLDEST SEPTEMBER 8

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—With a minimum temperature of 54, yesterday was the coldest September 8 in thirty-three years and as cold as any September 8 in the Weather Bureau records. In 1877 the same day recorded the same temperature.

The temperature rose to around 65 yesterday afternoon, but last night quickly dropped and the prediction was that it might go as low as 45 "cooler tonight and continued cold tomorrow," was the forecast.

"Since the custom of appropriately celebrating the anniversary of the Golden Gate is inaugurated by the Native Sons of the Golden West, Californians have never been so united in the future portended as they are today. We have so much to do for our country and so much to do for the future of this state upon this, the sixty-fourth anniversary of the opening of the Golden Gate, that we find ourselves flocking joyfully at our doors, and we are prepared to do our utmost to make the day of the Golden Gate a day of which the Golden State is ready to welcome the world.

"On Monday last, members of our country club with the assistance of the Native Sons of the Golden Gate, whose striking and magnificent structure are a fulfillment of the prophecy of the Native Sons of the Golden State, asked of the American congress the privilege of celebrating the crowning achievement of the engineering of the century, the opening of the mighty Panama canal. As native sons, we are proud to say that our state has thus far redeemed every promise.

INTERESTING ENVIRONMENT

"The Golden Gate and the bay should this year celebrate within a city bordering upon waters which mingle with the waters of the Pacific, the proximity to one of the great navy yards of the country at whose doors a broadly 50,000 people, the population of over 500,000 with 225 souls to the square mile.

STATE'S FUTURE POSSIBILITIES

"Consider the future possibilities of California. This is a continent in the making. In the past China with a population of 423,000,000, Japan with 40,000,000, the European continent with 200,000,000 and the United States with 60,000,000 have been the most densely populated. We hope the canal will mean more to California than to any other state. We must make the most of our opportunities. Forgetting locality, we must make the most of the world. The United States, sectionalism eliminated, and minorities forgotten, home industries developed, and the world at our service—this should be our program for 1915."

In making the speaker made a plea for peace, expressing the wish that every native son and native daughter join the cause, and that every citizen realize that in the future the world's great powers will be made with our hands, and that the most splendid victories achieve. The present expenditure of millions, the death of thousands, the suffering of millions, the awful effusion of blood may open the eyes of the most belligerent to
